Present-Day Speaking

PT090104A – Jan 4, 2009 When I Say It Is Done, It Is Done

Approaching Me with My mind—when I say it is done, it is done. For what I have done is done, says the Lord.

PT090104B – Jan 4, 2009 This Will Be a Year—Peace, Stillness, and the Love of God

This will be a year of attaining to more powerful and higher levels of peace, stillness, and the love of God.

It will also be a year to many of you [when] things will really become clear. They will become a greater and greater part of your understanding as you move forward and lay claim on these things that are yours and as you follow Me to deliver to Me the things that are Mine, says the Lord.

PT090111A – Jan 11, 2009 A Prayer Language to Pray Beyond Yourself

These are some major keys, and these are some of the keys that many lack in their faith adventures. For many, many live in fear, and to live in fear limits Me on your behalf.

Come out of these things, for My peace is your peace. Did I not give you a language [for you] to pray beyond yourself, to pray into My plan?

You pray My plan alive in your life, then at each intersection you will take the right direction, for I am the Lord God that leads you, says the Lord.

PT090111B – Jan 11, 2009 The Transference of Great Wealth

Those whom I will use in the transference of great wealth will be those who can be led by My Spirit.

Wisdom, again, wisdom, plays a major key in the transfer and the changing of hands of wealth.

PT090129A – Jan 29, 2009
Let Me Be This Father to You

You know where it talks [in the Bible] about a man robbing God? Do you want to know what I am most grieved about being robbed of? I am grieved about My children not allowing Me to lavishly demonstrate all that I AM to and for them.

Look how you plan out ahead of time things for your children's enjoyment and pleasure. When you have planned something for your children, your delight and pleasure is watching them be excited about each new surprise of the plan as it unfolds before them. They have complete confidence that everything you have in store for them will happen.

How I long for My children to have such confidence in Me. My greatest joy is when My children delight in all that I am, when My children continually walk in confidence of all that I am no matter what the circumstances around them say. They can't wait to see My new plan of deliverance, for their thoughts to dwell on: What unique plan does God have this time to demonstrate once again His lavish love for me?

This is where I am bringing you, to this place of utter confidence in Me; this place of perfect love where fear and doubt do not exist; there isn't even a memory of what those words mean.

Oh, let Me be this Father to you.

For too long My children have walked in dread every day wondering what the next blow from the enemy was going to be instead of eagerly anticipating what new blessing I had planned for them. In walking in fear and dread of what the enemy's plans might be, they have robbed Me of the joy of being able to pour Myself into every part of their lives, and mostly of the pleasure of watching them wonder with great anticipation and curiosity: What's Daddy got planned for us today?

Come—let Me be this Father to you. You are loved, you are so loved.

PT090129B – Jan 29, 2009
Your Place in Me in My Family

I am going to take the strain out of your relationship with Me. The strain has been performance, and the underlying problem has been whether or not your performance has been up to par.

It is NOT about your performance. It is only about who you are in Me. I have placed you in the palm of My hand as a treasure that My Son has given Me through His redemptive work.

His work of redemption was a fruit of His love for Me. In the boundaries of His love, He could ONLY go to the Cross. Because of His love, there was no other way for Him. Love performs as an action of the root of love.

I created you for good works and these works grow as your love grows through your knowledge of Me. I created you in Him for good works, and the more His spirit in you grows, the more these good works grow. They go hand in hand. But I do not love you for your works, your performance. I love you because you are born of My Spirit and made in My own image. You are Mine. You are a member of My household.

You don't earn your meals or provision. You don't earn your keep or your standing, and you don't earn your healing. All of these are part of your place in Me in My family. Jesus made this available to you. Your place in Me in My family comes by the grace that you are free to receive. There is no act or good thing you can do to receive. Just believe—that is the entrance into all I have provided.

The strain between you and Me must go, and the revelation of My grace is unfolding which will cause your understanding to become very enlightened. It is a season of My grace unfolding. Persistence is the key—keep the eyes of your understanding focused and fastened on Me so that nothing else can get into this time of My grace and the unveiling of things you have not understood. Your vision is being cleared each day as you persist into times with Me.

I am really pleased with how you are persisting. Just continue at this pace each day. Grace will get clearer and clearer.

No performance; no one to please or appease. I am already pleased with My nature within you, and you are totally accepted in the Beloved—totally—and you are free to receive. There is no hindrance between you and Me. My Son removed it all. Feel free to receive of the best of Me. I give you all you need.

PT090201A – Feb 1, 2009
Rest Assured That Change Is Coming

For you who have stood, proclaimed and believed, you can rest assured that change is coming. For as your instructions become more and more detailed, then understanding where you are walking and your foundation, as you enter in, you will see many things begin to change, for this city is in for a surprise.

Rejoice, rejoice in it. Rejoice. Be exceedingly glad, knowing that you will obtain the promise.

PT090201B – Feb 1, 2009
He Is Very Pleased

He is very pleased. This is what He wants you to know: That He is pleased because His training—He is pleased because we are going to enter into a time of harvest. And you think we want people saved? He will get to see what He has been after, and we get to obey.

PT090211A – Feb 11, 2009
Walk in the Love of God Through Praying in Tongues

Many of you are hungry. You thirst for the things of the Spirit; you are hungry for only what I can give you, says the Lord. These things come when you take a deep drink from the rivers of God. For did I not say you could build yourself up above these things and walk in the love of God by edifying yourself through praying in tongues?

PT090211B – Feb 11, 2009
That Hunger You Have Inside Is for Me

That hunger that you have inside, that thirsting, that is for Me. Those are for the things of My Spirit, for there is a fellowship I can have with you where My power will flow freely, and My miracles in your life will affect the areas you live in, says the Lord.

PT090215A – Feb 15, 2009
Heed These Instructions

Editor's Note: The following was spoken after an exhortation on the sustaining power of private worship during seasons of fasting.

[You are] coming to a time—the devil knows his time is short that he would be enraged and his war would increase. So as you meditate on these things, remember, when I move you forward, I do it for a reason. For there will not be the outpouring that I earnestly desire without causing—we can't go on to this outpouring we're looking to without invoking another level of the war. So heed these instructions, for as you move forward, these will be a great, great blessing to you.

PT090215B – Feb 15, 2009
Seasons of Edification

Many of you have been praying and [for] some seasons, and you have edified yourself and prayed [yourself] to places. At times, when you are close, I use My grace that is the standing I gave to you.

Sometimes when you are close, and you have prayed some things through in your seasons of edification, then I am able to move and sometimes move it forward, sometimes come in on it, then sometimes catch it up. But this brings you closer to your heart's call to bring to pass what I have commissioned you for.

PT090215C – Feb 15, 2009
A Season of Enlightenment

For those who are pressing into Me and continuing to endure, it is a season of enlightenment, where the eyes of the understanding are being enlightened as never before. The mysteries are being prayed out, and they shall no longer be called mysteries, instead the mysteries become revelation. Many are experiencing this already and can say that revelation is coming faster, but this is because the seasons of endurance have their rewards.

Many of the enduring ones came close to wearing out but instead chose to persist in the endurance I asked of them, and these choices kept putting them into a higher walk with Me, with the flesh being more in submission each step of the way.

The results of this season will bring the revival you have desired. The many months and years of the press of the flesh have their reward.

Endurance is a requirement in a walk with Me and can at times seem to be nothing but long seasons of press, press, press; yet, the results will cause you to say, “If I had known it would be like this.” I have told you the rewards are worth it, and the joy set before you is worth it.

Weeping does endure for a night, but the joy of the morning is sweet in itself.

PT090215D – Feb 15, 2009
All Have Equal Access

Revelation is growing in My Church as people are discovering the truth of who they are in Me. They are finding their life is hidden in Me—that is the secret place, the nature of Christ in you—for it is no longer you who live but Christ in you.

Worship is that place of revelation where you leave the constraints of the flesh and become immersed in My Presence and operate out of the senses of the new nature. In this place, it is easy to unfold the mysteries of who I am in you and to help you understand whom you have become in Me.

The understanding of My family is unfolding at this hour, for it is imperative that My people leave the deception of religion and come to an understanding of who they are, and that is approved, accepted, and a full-fledged member of My family. In this family, you are free to be as intimate with Me as you desire, for all have equal access to the Father and equal access to their full inheritance gained for them by My Son.

You have been saved out of the old land of the sin nature and brought into the Promised Land of the new nature where, in My family, there is not a feeble one among you. I provided healing for all by My Son’s stripes. All of the merits of man are cast aside in My family, for none can earn a position in My family by their own merits. All have equal access and equal standing in the same nature of My Son. It is an “equal access” family.

What a glorious day for Me when the work of redemption was finished. I have My heart’s desire—sons in My family.

It is free! It is free! It is free! Access into all that My Son provided is free! The work and the provision are complete. All that man needs is freely provided, and the understanding is being gained that it was all done by the works of My Son.

Redemption is final and redemption is complete. All have equal access to Me. You are free to receive.

PT090218 – Feb 18, 2009
Be Unstoppable

You are in a life or death war and there is grace for all to survive. You are fighting to possess the life of Christ and His attributes and His character. As these become who you are in your daily walk, the authority you have been given will be on exhibit; it will be on display to the world.

There is an evil force on assignment to stop each one of you, but there is grace not to fail. All that you need, I have given to you, and every key you have been taught is pertinent to the path you are on.

It is a path of victory; it is a path of grace, for it is all done in My strength. You can rule and reign in every situation that comes against you as you forge forward in Me. You must remember that greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world. I have given you authority over all the power of the enemy that nothing by any means shall harm you. I have given you the keys to live and abide in this place.

Love will be a turning point in this journey. As you grow in your knowledge of My love, you will put on more of that nature—your authority dwells in the nature of Love, for that is who I am.

The key is to continue without looking back or letting up on this path that's been given to you. Pray much, worship much, meditate much, and heed the instructions on fasting. It will take you past everything that does not believe whom I have made you to be.

When you know who you are in Me and in My family, your walk will be as a mighty, mighty force against the enemy's forces, and you will prevail.

It is not the time to wait and see what happens and what the enemy will bring. It is a time to act on all that has been spoken, on all you know to do, and forge ahead in this hour.

I have said it is the hour of division—the division of soul and spirit—and it is. It is of prime importance to be unstoppable on this path of putting away the soulish nature, the nature of the flesh, and putting on the nature of My Son, which is the nature of your new man.

You can prevail against all the enemy brings, and you can come through the storms rejoicing. You can walk as an army in triumph—you can. You will win every situation you face as you heed your instructions. Do the things you have learned and succeed. There is grace in My family to succeed.

PT090225 – Feb 25, 2009 Intercessors on the Offensive [Part 1]

When intercessors go on the offensive, it is to stand in the place of righteousness and to enforce the victory of the blood. It is to say “No!” to the lies and deceptions of the enemy and to stand in the authority of the Kingdom of Love and decree the truth of the Kingdom as stewards of My truth. Greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world.

Being on the offensive is to stand in the authority of sonship, as living, viable heirs of My Kingdom enforcing My will. If the mindset is one of being on the offensive side in every situation, then you are operating out of the mind of Christ, for the victory has been gained.

Even when it seems all is lost and your back is up against every wall, as a son in My family, you still stand in the offensive position, for I have given you authority over all the power of the enemy and nothing by any means shall harm you.

It was a great day when My Son rose in triumph—a great day—and you rose on that day in His triumph also. You were seated in Him in the heavenlies, far above all principality and power, might, rule and dominion, and every name that is named. It is out of this inheritance that you begin all things and end all things.

As you enter into the awareness of My love and My mind in these seasons of intercession, you see things from the higher place, where your mind is set on those things which are above, and the effort is all in My strength and love. It is a glorious time for Me, as it is for you, because I enjoy the closeness even more than you.

There are many times you have been used in intercession when you have not sensed it. In those times, when your heart has been opened to Me, and My compassion is your compassion, in those times, I have been free to move through you on behalf of others. These times are growing at a much faster pace, for you have allowed Me into your heart to do My work in you, regardless of the cost.

I am teaching intercessors at this hour and preparing them for the hour that is ahead, when massive moves of My Spirit will be witnessed by all men. It will not be done without My intercessors, for My Spirit uses their authority to bring forth My plans and purposes so that My Kingdom can be released through this authority.

Many are being prepared at this hour, and all who are hearing Me and sensing My hand are being drawn into Me in a new way. I am teaching them things at this hour so they will be readily accessible to My Spirit and ready to move forward in Me into new dimensions of the authority that is within them.

The intimate call is the call of My Spirit to all men, and those who allow Me to use them in prayer move out of this place of intimacy. It is for all to have, no matter the call, but the intercessor will find their success comes from this place of knowing Me in intimacy.

Intercessors on the Offensive [Part 2]

Being on the offensive is to have in your hands the ability to score. My people always have the ability to score, for the redemptive Blood has placed them in the victory and authority of My Son.

Offense is the rule of the day. The hour for the knowledge of the offensive position has come and My Church is beginning to see this is a key.

You have been bought with a price and now belong to Me. In your place in Me, you stand in full authority over all the power of the enemy. Your seat is not in this earth, but in the Heavenlies in Me. You have the right to rule and reign in Me as kings on this earth out of your seat in the Heavenlies in Me.

You are My authority in this earth. You are the Body of My Son, and you are to use the authority of His nature in you and exercise your place in Me—as sons for all eternity. It is an eternal standing and there is no departing the place you have been given in Me. It is finished—you are My sons.

The place of worship is a key to this offensive position, for in this place of intimacy, you take on My mind and leave the restraints of this world in their proper place. As you become less aware of this world's system and more aware of My Kingdom's system through worship, you lose the weight of the world and gain the brightness of My Image.

Out of this place, you begin to operate freely out of My mind. In this place of unity, it frees Me to operate through you to bring My truths forth and My purposes and plans to pass.

In this place of intimacy through worship, it is easier to see that there is nothing to take back. The enemy has nothing of Mine—nothing—but his lies and deceptions make it seem like he has captured My land. This is not so. My land is My land, and in your sonship all that you do is out of My nature and out of My truths in who you are in Me. Your role is only that of enforcing truth.

What I say goes. In other words, I am the God of all truth and what I say is truth and nothing but truth. What the enemy says is lies and nothing but lies. There is no truth in him.

As you stand in the vantage point of truth, the understanding is enlightened that all I said is true, and the enemy has nothing of Mine. I own all. I am above all, and your standing is in that.

Intimacy draws you into those truths about Me, and in this place, your heart begins to see and understand facets of Me you have not seen. From this place, you free Me to move through you enforcing My Son's victory. The victory is complete. There is nothing left at My Son's feet but the defeat of the enemy, and their necks I have given to you. So you are never in a position of backpedaling at the pressure of the enemy, for I am never in this position. What is Mine is Mine, and the enemy has no dominion over Me to take it. You are in Me in this position. It is your place in My family. We are one.

Worship is a major key in operating in the offensive. Through this kind of intimacy, you move past the restrictions of the flesh into the liberty of the spirit where My truth operates. The resistance you fight is the resistance of the flesh and the tactics of the enemy through the flesh to inhibit you from operating in the liberty of the spirit where My truth runs free.

As intercessors gain greater knowledge of this place of intimacy in worship, they will pursue the intimacy their inheritance has given them a right to. You have accessed this place many times. Just as through praying in tongues I can accomplish My plans and purposes in you and in others, so too in My worship. Many times My plans are going forth out of these places of edification and worship that you know not of.

As your Commander, all I need is for My troops to be in place and operating in all they have been taught. As this takes place, My strategies against the darkness of lies will prevail.

My troops are leaving the place of the comfort of the flesh for the comfort of the spirit. One comfort is for temporary results, and the other comfort gains eternal results and deepens the relationship with Me. The intimate route is the sure place of sweet, sweet union with Me and is the place where we also enforce the enemy's defeat.

So watch and see as My troops begin to see that the place of intimacy is the place of their refuge and the place of their authority. Watch as they gain insight into their standing in Me and are drawn by My grace into this habitation of intimacy.

It is a new hour, and the day of refreshing and strengthening has arrived. I will use this time to refresh those who have endured in Me. I will use this time to encourage them to come deeper and deeper into Me where My truths run free. I will prepare them for the battle that lies ahead, and I will invite them into the habitation of My love and the knowledge of Me so they will find grace to be free to see like I see. It is a time of preparing My loved ones for the things that lie ahead so they will operate out of their place in Me, which is intimacy.

An intimate walk will be required for some of the things that you will see and that will stand before you. But in intimacy is the confidence of who you are in Me, and out of this place, no foe will fool you; and I will be free to bring My Kingdom forth at this hour so that many might come to know Me and go free.

Watch and pray and continue to pursue the intimate way.

Land of the Prophetic

There is a place in the prophetic My people have not entered into for many generations, and it is this place I am unfolding. Jesus is the key, and all that He walked in is the model for the prophetic in Me.

A prophet must rise above the mess of the world's system and the world's ways. Religion has taught the prophetic, and it is not pure in Me. Those I call to be My prophets, My prophetesses must rise up and be seen in My purity of truth.

The prophet will see out of My mind and hear out of My ears. They will know things by My Spirit—things I will unfold and things that will unfold, and will know the hour in which they live. I need voices to speak My times and seasons and to declare My times and seasons to those I send them to.

There will be many, and each must know My mind and heart and speak forth truth in love and not be “bought” for man's pleasures. The purity of My prophets who have advanced in My love and truth will fly in the face of religion. They will not be for sale nor will their agenda be anything but My agenda.

The judgment of the prophetic is pure and has at the core of its purposes the saving of men's souls from eternal judgment. The judgment of the prophetic looks through My mind, out of My heart, and refuses to allow the tricks of the enemy to have the heart that wants Me but has allowed deception to enter in to mix with My truth. I will always respond to men's hearts for Me. Judgment is ruling according to men's hearts for their safety and the safety or salvation of others.

When I pronounce judgment, it is to ensure the safekeeping of one or several in My household. Though the family members may be operating outside of the guidelines of My family, which is the new nature and the truth within it, they are still a part of the household, though their role within the household has been somewhat limited or entirely halted. I can intervene to ensure their place in My family, for their hearts have chosen Me.

For those whose hearts have left Me, and whose intent is to deceive and steal My family, I again have the freedom to move, based on My family whom they intend to use and who are reaching out for Me. I must ensure the safety of My family, for it is the honor of the everlasting covenant that I will never leave or forsake you. Man can forsake Me, but I shall never, ever, ever forsake you.

My sons operate out of My Kingdom principles. I will bring forth these standards to save many in their darkest hour; and judgment always begins in My house first.

The place of intimacy and the path which revolves around My Word is the path well-chosen and is a safe path. The path of intimacy in truth will take you on into the things I desire to share with you.

The Path Is Being Opened

You will hold Me up in the light of a new fervency and a new fire being kindled, and many of you will find that the course is not going to be the same nor will the path look the same. For you who have been with Me in this fight through the years, hold on. Your eyes are about to see some of the grapes from the Promised Land.

Great rejoicing, happiness, joy, glee—for many of you will see things with your eyes that you have longed to see, and your report will be excitement—excitement. You will say, “This is more than I even imagined.”

So be strong and know the path is being opened. Be strong and know. Don’t let the devil sabotage you right at the mouth of the last part of this for revival. For there will be great times, and people will not be able to stop talking about it.

PT090306A – Mar 6, 2009
God’s Love and the New Nature

You have to understand, My love for you is an everlasting love. Religion has been the death of the truth of My love; for the “truths” it portrays point to you, when in My grace, you have become hidden in My love.

All your sins were washed away in the river of My Son’s blood. All of His triumph over sin and the grave became your triumph, because He placed Himself in you, in your place, so you could be placed in Him, in His place for eternity.

Everlasting is the strength of My love. Everlasting is the grace I gave to make your standing complete. Grace is all about Me. Sin was all about you. The nature you took on was one of My grace and love. You became immersed, by My grace, into the eternity of My love.

My love has no limits; it has no end. All men can come to Me through the eternal strength of My love. Nothing can stand between the heart that wants Me and My love for them—nothing.

Men must know there is no limit to My love. My Son took everything of man’s humanity, so that everything of My spirit nature could be brought into man. Man’s nature was death and was outside of all that was in Me. Mankind chose the life of the flesh over the life of the spirit and separated themselves from Me.

All has been returned, all has been redeemed, and again, man has the choice to choose Me. And with this is the provision to have the life that is within Me and to operate out of that and be hidden in Me.

I made a place in Me, in My Son, where all could be forever hidden in who I am that no longer did you have to live in yourself but now can forever live in Me. I am your Life. I am your Strength. I am your Peace, your Joy, and your eternal Hiding Place. The life that you now live is a spirit life in Me. The restraints of your flesh can now be overcome by this life in you, which is My life.

I recognize that it is a journey of learning to live in Me and learning to become aware of and totally familiar with the life in you that is Me. As you become more and more acquainted with Me, the restraints of the flesh become more and more of a distant thing. Those parts of you that you have learned to please, that are outside of your life in Me, become less dominant in their role in your life as you become more in tune with the One who is Love, and that is Me.

Condemnation is the voice of religion and is the “voice” many try to please by trying to make their ways pleasing to Me. What must be known is the position provided for in Me. Your life is hidden and no longer seen. I placed all of who you were, before the Cross, in My Son and let Him represent you for Me at that Cross.

Now, in your standing in Him, there is nothing of you left except your life in Him, and that is what has been left of you, for Me, through His redemption.

Your life now is represented by a new nature. Everything before that new nature is gone, removed from your standing in Me. It is no longer a part of you. So the life you now live in the flesh has within it a nature that is of Me—your nature is My nature, and your standing, or the place you hold in relation to Me, is separate from everything you were before the sacrifice of My Son. His sacrifice made you perfect to Me. You live out of a nature that came directly from Me. You were born of My Spirit and your place in Me is forever complete.

I no longer judge by the old nature. It is gone, and everything about you has become new. You are forever changed into the same image of My Son, who is the image of Me. Our spirits are one. Everything about you is now hidden in Me, and My life in you is all that is seen. That is the hiding place of My Son.

All that remains of you is a life in Me, and it is this life that is to represent Me. The life of the flesh that you learned to please was crucified with Christ. And now you are learning to walk by the life that is in Me and to let the ways of the life that died have no dominion. That is your journey now with Me. You are learning how to live out of the life in you that is of Me.

Your flesh has no dominion outside of your thoughts about it. That is why the mind must be renewed. All of the thinking that is outside of My Son’s thinking must go, for His mind is My mind. The more your mind is filled with Me, focused on Me, and consumed with Me, the faster you walk through this transforming process. Worship can bring you into that place where your senses are only aware of Me. This kind of awareness permeates and sets free. The more you saturate yourself in Me, the quicker you are transformed because truths are revealed in that place where you are lost in Me. My truths make you free. So worship freely and continue to get lost in Me. Grace is abounding and truth is flowing freely.

My Love Evident in My ‘Man’

There is forgiveness—it is the nature of Love. The blood of My covenant represents the nature of love. The animal skins clothed My man [Adam]—he was clothed in My love, which is full of mercy.

One of the signs of this revival will be My love evident in My “man” — the Church. My love and My mercy create an atmosphere that is filled with the essence of who I am. Many flocked to My Son because My love exuded from Him, and mankind needed that love. It is the only true love, and it is the essence of the one true God, who is Love.

I cannot be known apart from My love because Love is what and who I am. There have been glimpses of My love to this generation, but nothing like what shall be seen. It will be known that you are Mine by your love, by the nature you walk in that is only developed through fellowship with Me.

I am turning up the speed of the unveiling of the attributes of My love because I have a people who have been unstoppable in reaching into more of Me by My grace. Tests will come that will buffet, but always the house on the rock of knowing and doing My sayings does stand.

The authority is coming with the love, and this is what the enemy has tried to stop. He sees the forces that are rising against him, but his gates will not prevail against My gates, for all authority is in Me and in those who are in Me.

I see the expectancy rising in My Church to see what they have not yet seen, yet know they will see. It is the grandest time to be a part of Me, and the unveiling of things will soon be seen.

I know how to move and when I can move because I see all things. I am delighted at what I see in the hearts that are opening up more and more to allow Me to unveil more and more of Myself to them.

We are getting close in the preparation season, and “turning the corner” will soon be seen. Hold fast to the things you know to do, for the rest is up to Me as I open the eyes of the understanding in each one who is holding fast to Me. I am more than pleased.

PT090308 – Mar 8, 2009
Yield Even More to My Spirit

In the days to come, I must have your faith, for the things that I will do, I cannot manifest without My Body. I need you to grow up. I need maturity. I need your petitions. I need your faith.

Be not discouraged. Know that the enemy is launching his finest because he sees his time is short. Be not discouraged. Be strong, says the Lord.

Yield even more to My Spirit and let Me finish the shaping and the molding. You are the clay in the Potter’s hand and the vessel I am preparing—the whole world will see, and it will resemble Jesus. They will see Him through His Body.

PT090313 – Mar 13, 2009
The River of Love Is Being Ushered In

The doors of My love are wide open, and a threshold has been crossed that will usher in the revival that many have “seen.” The intercessors are beginning to take their place in My love, and this has been a key.

The eyes, the eyes, the eyes, oh, the eyes of the understanding are turning to see more of Me. Religion has kept the eyes from fully turning to see Me, but religion's ways are like discarded sackcloth on the path of where you have been on this journey into Me, and much more is being understood about Me. I have a group united who just want more of Me, and purity they seek. This pleases Me. They have not left this path of purity in their pursuit of Me.

This will be a revival that is sustained by the pure in heart whose only desire is more truth and more of Me. There has been a cry for the pure truth, and this is necessary, for this is the cry of those who just want Me.

The hour of revival is at hand, and My hand is ministering the final preparations of the heart as I continue to fashion My people's hearts to "see" as I see.

What the world would call "the dregs" will want My love which they will see. The rich and the not so rich will want Me. The hurting and the wounded will come—looking for Me.

Those who have been impure and unclean will come—to find Me. Some who are at the brink of destruction's gates will turn and find Me.

Those who have been unfaithful to spouses will come and get their hearts cleaned. Those who have hurt the children will turn in hopes of finding the help that is in Me. The lost and the forsaken will come to Me, and those at the end of their journey, who have all but lost hope, will come and will find Me.

Those who have lived a life of gross misconduct will find there is forgiveness in Me.

The hopeless, the hurting, the proud, and the scoundrels, and those whose hearts have plotted nothing but mischief will come, because their hope is to turn and find Me.

There will be many who will come whose hearts have been closed like a nailed shut door and of whom it is said, "Their heart is like a coffin with no door." And they will come and their hearts will be opened by My love once more.

Rivers of love will flow. Hurts, wounds, fears, transgressions, murders and strifes and hatreds, and the vilest of sins and wounds will float away in this River of Love that I am releasing.

The journey for many will end at revival's door, as they receive the grace and forgiveness and come home and enter Heaven's doors.

So the revelation of My love is being opened to the hearts that have pressed in, and the hearts are being formed and fashioned to handle more of Me in the manner of maturity. Many are trying to grasp more of the understanding of My love and its grace, and an anointing of truth is being released that will enable this understanding to take place. The hearts are allowing the revealing of these mysteries to speed up, and it is connected to the fruit that is coming forth from the long seasons of endurance.

So rejoice, for a door has been entered, and revival will soon be ushered in. There is grace for the River of Love that is being ushered in.

Prayer Is What Has Caused Mighty Revival Fires

He who makes intercession stands in the place of those—for know this: When you position yourself in My Presence and make intercession and stand, you will not be moved. I put you on the road between hell and those who are trying to get there. Think not for one moment that I do not use these things.

Prayer is what has caused mighty revival fires to burn, for many, many have believed for their loved ones for a long, long time. Yet, when I am able to show up with what I have for revival, many times great harvests take place for those who are believing for your lost loved ones.

So continue on the path that I put you on. Receive My outpouring for this place.

If you only understood before you got to Heaven what was given to you in the gift of the Holy Spirit. If you only would have understood: When God prays His mind in your spirit, then utters it, that is the premier prayer that will be answered in conjunction to the Word.

If you only knew the gift that He gave you, then diligence would not have had to be hammered and hammered and hammered to get you through the trials and tests that come from the devil, who is just as determined for you not to break through as you are to [break through].

If You Would Really Turn Me Loose

Editor's Note: The following came after an exhortation on walking in God's love and forgiveness.

Comments – He delights in this kind of knowledge—delights in what He can do. He delights in what He can do.

For if you would really turn Me loose, I need very little from you to do what I do over and over again.

So heed; give ears to hear. Heed. In other words, pay attention to what's been taught.

The Authority of Truth

You are going into a war. You are the army attacking the enemy. It is YOU attacking the enemy. The land of who you are in Christ is the land I have given you, and every squatter is to be removed. Show no mercy.

You will be the people I will send into war by the nature within you—the nature of truth. You are a mighty, fearless, conquering, “overcome them all” army. That is the nature of your new man.

Just as your Lord, who triumphed over ALL the enemy and made a public display of them, so too is that nature in you. What a mighty force to be reckoned with you are.

I am teaching you about who you are. You will tromp on your adversary and the lies and deceptions he brings because truth will be dominant in you. That truth will dominate everything that opposes you.

My people are going to be the mightiest army. My people are becoming the ones to be reckoned with. No one will prevail like My people will prevail—no one.

This is the hour that I am removing the deceptions that have remained, and I am replacing them with the truth of your victory in My Son. There is nothing He did not overcome. He left no enemy standing. Everything that stood in the way of accomplishing My will was destroyed—everything. All authority had been given to Him, and He exercised all authority as needed—every time.

He left nothing undone. There was no sickness He could not heal. There was no disease that could remain. And there was nothing broken He could not replace or make whole. He did all things excellently. In the same way, every demon had to flee. None could remain. There was no lack, no unmet need according to My will.

Everywhere He walked brought the revelation of My Kingdom, for He walked out of oneness with Me in spirit, and He lived only to do My will. He heard perfectly from Me. He spoke perfectly for Me. He lived perfectly for Me and brought My Kingdom into the earth through His spirit by the use of the authority within it.

The authority within His spirit dominated everything that was around Him. He lived out of His spirit and walked only according to My will. That same authority is within you and each and every member of My family. It is part of the born-again spirit. Authority—all authority—is part of the new nature within you because you are partakers of My divine nature.

He knew who He was in Me, and you are learning who you are in Me. He did not question that My Word is truth, and you are learning to not question that all that I say is truth and nothing but truth.

Truth goes into war. Truth allows no lie around it. Truth only prevails, for the Kingdom within is truth. As it is in Heaven, so is it to be on earth. We are a family of truth. We are a family of love. We are a family with all the authority.

PT090404 – Apr 4, 2009
Stay on Course

Behold, I give you authority over ALL the power of the enemy and nothing shall by any means harm you. This is not a cliché. It is My Word; therefore, it is truth. The dominion you now have has come from My Son, who gave His authority to you as His Body that remains to do My will.

There is within each and every one of you a living, eternal life, and within this life resides My authority. It is My life and My authority, for you are born of My Spirit. Every member of My family was made in My image and has as their responsibility the role of carrying out My will. And My will is to bring My Kingdom's life and ways into the earth to reveal the knowledge of My nature, which is love and mercy and justice.

All authority in Heaven and on earth was given to My Son, and as His Body, this authority has been committed to you through your union with Him, for you have a nature like His. You are being conformed into the same image of walking by that nature through the understanding of truth.

The truth of who you REALLY are is taking place, and no longer is there time for slumber. The understanding of truth is gaining momentum in My Church. At the same time, the enemy is in opposition trying to spread his lies as fast as he can. It is a time of vigilance.

The knowledge of authority has come to a new level, and with this knowledge comes war. As I bring to you greater understanding of your authority as My Body, I also release the anointing that goes with that authority. It is a greater understanding and a greater anointing that will be apparent in different ways. From signs and wonders to results in the prayer closet, from the corporate office to business transactions in the field. This increased authority will bring increased results in many ways, yet it will not be without war.

There is no need to fear, for I always prepare and equip for each new level you walk in, and the preparation and equipping has been taking place. You will lack nothing. You will be equipped for everything the enemy would bring to try and oppose you. But greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world. There is never a need to fear what the enemy uses against you, for he is already defeated. All was finished at the Cross. There is nothing that is lacking in your standing—nothing.

So, no sitting down, no stopping to rest. All the rest you need is in the refreshing of My Presence. Stay in the good fight of faith. Run with diligence the race that is set before. Be at peace with all men and keep your eyes on the Author and the Finisher of your faith, and He will bring you by My Spirit into all that has been promised. Stay on course.

Move Forward Boldly—The Land Is Yours

It's been most interesting, because for the seasons that we have contended and lived [in], that we have seen the supernatural on both sides of the fence, we have seen the supernatural come and manifest itself in the negative, and we have seen the supernatural come and manifest itself in the positive.

But know this: These things will come as you take one step after another to fulfill what I have called you to do.

Know you not that the negative will increase in intensity as well as the power in My glory? But fear not, for I have given you power over all the power of the enemy that he by no means can hurt you. So without fear—oh, there will be things spoken about fear—so without fear, move forward boldly, because the land is yours.

We Have the Answer

Once again, somebody is questioning: As Paul taught, I am speaking by the spirit, by the unction of the Holy Spirit, a tongue to be interpreted. He will often do that when He wants to take me into a certain pattern of things and I am over somewhere else.

So once again, He's here. He has a plan. We have a foundation. We are launching His plan, and it looks like the timing is excellent. When the world starts looking for an answer, we get to say, "We have it. We have it."

PT090405E – Apr 5, 2009
Fear Has Been Eradicated

Fear has been eradicated. It has no place in your nature, for I HAVE delivered you from all of your fears. The spirit I have given you is one full of My power, My love, and My mind. There is no place for fear in that.

Fear is of the enemy. Fear is full of the torment of his lies and deceptions, and My Body has believed lies most of their lives. They received his deceptions as truth and laid aside the truth of My Word; therefore, deception has ruled the thinking and controlled the emotions. These thoughts of his, his deceit must be refused and replaced by My truth.

The eradication of lies is complete, and the charge now is to take the sword of the Lord and cut to pieces the thoughts and deceptions that have ruled and to live in My authority. My authority has no fear—none. A fearful, anxious thought is not from Me and must be refused and removed. Think on those things that line up with My truth, My character, and your place in Me and refuse any other thought.

As new authority is being stepped into, the thought processes are being changed. New levels in Me are always connected to new thought processes, and new authority will not come without the thought processes being controlled. I keep in perfect peace the one whose mind is stayed, immovable, fixed on Me.

The entrance of My Word brings light, so as the Word is brought forward in your thinking, against the lies, and is prevalent in your speaking, the darkness of deception is put away from your life. The truth is the standard, and the rock or immovable foundation is one that is built on knowing and doing My sayings. My saying is that you have not been given a spirit of fear, but one of power and love and of a sound, disciplined mind. It is the mind of Christ, and nothing in My mind has fear.

My mind is totally engaged in My Word and totally lives out of the realm of My Word. My mind is constantly aware of the power available to bring My Kingdom into the earth. My mind is totally aware of the authority that lies within the nature that is of the living and all-supreme God. My mind is totally aware that the enemy fell like lightning and that the enemy was defeated by the obedient sacrifice of My Son. My mind is only aware of the truth that all authority has been given to My Church to bring My Kingdom into the earth, subduing all that opposes this Kingdom. My mind is fully cognitive of the truth that My sons have been given the dominion on this earth and that they are in this world but are no longer citizens of this world; they live in the Kingdom that has all dominion over all things.

My mind has been given unto you. I hold nothing back. There is free access to all. To My great delight, access into all that I have is being gained by the sons at an increased rate, and this is not by accident. It is the fruit of the path that you are on. Have I not said that it is My good pleasure to give to you the Kingdom? Indeed, it is My good pleasure, and I am enjoying the progress that is being made.

I am showing you glimpses of the war that you are engaging in through increased authority, and My admonition is to keep your eyes on the Author and the Finisher of your faith. As He is, so are you in this world. He is victorious. He is seated at My right hand, far above—far above—all principality, power, might, rule, dominion, and every name that is named. There is no foe that can stand against Him. There is no power that is greater than God. There is no god but the one true God.

There is no authority beyond My authority. There is none greater than the Living God. There is no Word that is eternal except My Word. There is no life that is THE Life except the One who is Life. There is none who has wisdom that compares to My wisdom. There is none who knows all things except the God of all Creation. There is none greater.

So, your standing is in all that I am. It is My family that you have been born into and that you have full inheritance in. Nations tremble at the Name of your God. Mountains quake at My voice. I alone can move mountains and bring things into being in perfection. And your standing is in Me. There is nothing to fear. All of your authority is out of all that I am. There is no one to fear. Every weapon that is formed has already been overcome by the triumph of My Son. There is nothing to be alarmed about.

You have a standing that cannot be earned. It is your birthright. It is who you are. It is not who you are becoming. It is who you are. You are the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus. It is who you are. There is nothing to fear. There is no cause for concern or alarm. You are outfitted in the righteousness of My Son, and all that you are is hidden in who He is.

Your life is not your own, it is Mine, and you are equipped for everything that you face. I prepare a well-equipped army. I prepare a wise and able people, and so you are. See yourself in the light of My glory. See yourself in the righteousness of who you REALLY are. See yourself in the mirror of the Word and take this Word of truth and proclaim who you really are. Decree and declare the truth of who you are IN ME, and stand in the reality of this truth: All of your life is in Me through My Son.

Let My Word be a beacon that lights your way and a power that removes obstacles and sets things in their true order. Be conformed to the Word of who you are in My Son and walk in this light and remove the darkness that has abounded. It is time for the true light of My sons to shine.

It Is My Desire to Move

I will remind you that when I through words build people's faith, that at times they attain to places of grace—that is to say, something I provided for them that is unearnable—therefore, they are open to receive at that minute. And it is My desire at that minute to move because I want to administer My grace and all things that are good, all that I can, says the Lord.

PT090419A – Apr 19, 2009
I Look at It As Now

You do stand in the place of not a feeble one among you, for I do not stand in time. Your inheritance is all the fullness of Christ in you—all the fullness. It is truth that you are a new creature in Christ, and old things have passed away, and behold, all things have become new.

My people have not beheld My truth that ALL things have become new. You are not creatures of darkness but creatures of light. That light is Christ in you, the hope of glory. When you were healed and made whole by the stripes of Jesus—you were healed and made whole. That is your standing, and as My Body, there is not a feeble one among you.

What has not been seen is that I stand outside of time, and so do you in your standing in Christ at My right hand. Man looks at the born-again redemption plan as two thousand plus years ago. I look at it as now.

All things have become new. Now it has happened. Now it is so. Now is the day of salvation. Now is your season of redemption. All are new. All are whole. All are free in Me. Your time is "Now."

Now you are more than a conqueror. Now you are far above all principality, power, might, rule and dominion, and every name that will ever be named.

The "feeble" was taken away at the Cross. Now it has happened. Now it is so.

The mind of Christ is your inheritance. Now it has happened. Now it is so. Now you have that mind. Now you stand in My righteousness by the blood of My Lamb. Now you are greater, through He that is in you, than he that is in the world, because now in His life you are hidden.

You stand in a place called "Now" in your inheritance. When you walk in "seasons" and "times," it is because I am able to show you things in "Now" that your understanding has gained access to.

“Now” is the time I stand in and the time that you stand in through your standing in Christ. Your understanding truth brings about the opening of your eyes into the place you stand and the fullness you have now.

All things are gained through the knowledge of your God and through the knowledge of all I have made available for you to be through My Son, by the help of My Spirit. But all these things the eyes of your understanding see and the wisdom of revelation opens up to you are now who you are and are all that you have through your inheritance. You stand in the place of “Now,” which is the place called Done—the place of your standing being complete and finished. “Now” is who you are in Christ—now at this very moment.

Everything that was done for you was done now. Everything you have become has happened now. You are freshly a new creature in Christ, newly born again, and now you are healed and made whole with none feeble among you.

Let the eyes of your understanding peer into the “now” of who you are and where you stand in Me through My Son. See as now; speak as now; live in now. It is who you are.

PT090419B – Apr 19, 2009
Be Not Afraid

You are all going into war, not just one, not just two—you are all going into war. Some of your war will be for others, some of your war will be against intruders in your life, but all are going into war.

Hear this: Be not afraid. Hear Me: Be not afraid. There is nothing you have not been given dominion over—nothing.

Your victory is complete. Your stand is as righteous as you can stand in My Son. It is My righteousness not yours. Get that straight. You have no righteousness of your own and never will. But in My righteousness you are equipped in the fullness of My Son.

So as the enemy presents his lies from his position of defeat, you present My truth in My position of victory that is yours in Christ, and decree in the authority of the sons of the Almighty this truth: Righteousness prevails over darkness at all times. Don't leave the truth of righteousness in all your thinking, in all your speaking, and in all your doing. Stand in the righteousness of the Son and declare and decree. Decree the voice of the Kingdom, which is My Word, and be moved by nothing.

Stand. You are victorious in all things. I love you. I have given you My all.

PT090420 – Apr 20, 2009
Raising Up an Altar of Compassion

I am raising up an altar of compassion in My army of intercessors, for many have come to the place of laying their lives down by My grace. They have allowed Me to work My heart of compassion in them so that My heart's passion and purity can be released to bring the captives out of their grave clothes and into the garments of My light. My hungers and My desires for this fruit to be born in their lives is being satisfied.

There are those who have stood in the gap for this day to come, and it is a sweet day that all will see. This army of love, light, and Holy Spirit power will also usher in the next wave of intercessors who are being molded and conformed into this place of My heart's compassion.

Many will be needed and on call and on duty for the revival that's being ushered in, but the first wave has joined forces across this land, and yes, across this world to become as one in the work of My Spirit in extending My love, My blood of the everlasting covenant, and My authority to those who walk in darkness and in forms of darkness. It is a new day in My Church.

Heed My instructions as they come, for obedience is always better than sacrifice. A simple, yielded heart is all that is required for this army of anointing and love. This day of unity has been a work of My Spirit that has been forming in My plan for many years. It is the work of My Spirit in the work of the Potter.

Let the worship of the Lord and King rise from your hearts. Let the embrace of the Father be the much sought after place. Let the companionship and complete fellowship of the Holy Spirit be your daily bread.

There is nothing more satisfying to this Father's heart than children who have yielded their hearts and lives to Me. My heart is happy, and I am rejoicing in each one. You are My love.

PT090426A – Apr 26, 2009 When That Outpouring Begins

When that outpouring begins, the one that will precede, you will see things that you have hardly seen before. In the outpouring of My Spirit, I will outpour in such a way and with such an authority that there will be very few diseases that will try to survive what I am about to do, says the Lord.

So rejoice in that day and know that this will be soon, because I am gathering up what I need in the area of authority to move in like this and begin to change things.

Many things are happening around you now, and you see signs that are being reported that you are recognizing as things that would be present in the end times. Know what else will be present will be My outpourings, and remember this: In your patience possess ye your souls, and not a hair on your head need to be harmed.

At the time this begins to pour out, to you it will be like a neon sign flashing along the freeway [saying] that revival has arrived, "Come and bring your sick!"

PT090426B – Apr 26, 2009 You Will Do Things for Me—Great Things

These will be great times, for there is nothing too hard for you. You who have learned to hear My voice and walk in the spirit, you will walk paths that I will send you on where you will do things for Me, and I mean great things, says the Lord.

So hear: In these times of plenty, when you did not have to subject yourself, you did not have to bend your knee, that from your heart came the love, so that you wanted to learn to yield yourself to the Holy Spirit that He might teach you of present times and things to come.

Listen to Me: Oh, there will be multitudes who the Holy Spirit will fall on in these days, and there will be teachings that will equip them. There will be multitudes that will be turning to Me. For this operation of the Spirit that I am bringing forward will be such manifestation, such display, that [if] you believe people wanted the Teacher and wanted to give themselves over completely that they may walk down your path was strong in these days—wait till you see people who turn to Me, not because of their problems, but turn to Me because they saw a challenge that they wanted to live up to and believe what I said and gave themselves—trusting in faith—that no matter what happened, if they kept their course, that I would bring the change and the things they have desired to see for so long.

We took this course because we found out from the teaching and reading that book that no matter what kinds of problems we have, step by step, if you won't quit, He will bring you out.

So we mostly came not because of the power exactly but because of getting the pressures off and taking this path out and into. But there will be many, many also who moved everything they have ever laid their hands on, and when they see these things as truth, at times, there will be very short works done, and they will hold onto Me and move forward with no fear for their life.

What am I seeing? God came because we did have problems not because we didn't. A lot of times the reason that we turn to something like this is because of the problems that we want Him to help us [with] and leave behind and change.

I saw a strange crowd. They were a crowd that was high achievers. All they had to know was just what to do. I saw Him somehow get to them, and they thoroughly believed what was said. And all of that they had in their character, they turned towards the change that would produce this.

Now, myself, I started coming because I was under conviction, and my life wasn't so "minimum wage-less." Raising three kids on minimum wage when I first got to Oregon—but I had a stubborn streak like we're talking about, so I made it past the take-out point. It's a whole lot easier when somebody went before you and told you what to expect.

I don't know who this crowd is He is going after, but I believe they're "money" people too. I believe they will turn their fortune-making skills over to just feeding the outreach of these gospels as they move forward—people like that.

PT090501 – May 1, 2009

Expect

EXPECT My anointing to reside in you. Expect it to manifest in truth. This inheritance in Me affords all you'll ever need—it is My glory that this world will see.

My nature resides within each and every one of you in that spirit of "Christ in me." Within this nature, where all My glory resides, is the glorious anointing indeed. By My Spirit's holy power, this anointing is released for all My Kingdom's needs on this earth. "Your Kingdom come, Your will be done" is all by My anointing and My grace.

Those who know My truth know that My truth alone is My will, and the reason for My Body remaining on this earth is to bring the Father's will into the earth.

I only lived to do My Father's will. I only spoke that which was of My Father. I only lived to bring the revelation of Father and His will, His purposes, His heart, His nature into this earth that all might be one, even as we are one today. This is the finishing work of My Body—to do the will of the Father in cooperation with the Spirit sent of the Father, who is the Spirit of grace and truth.

Expect the glory of your nature to be the glory of My nature, for we are one. Expect the work of the Father's hands by His Spirit to be evident in your life, manifested as it was in Mine, for we are one. You are My Body. We are not separate. We are one.

The anointing is as much a part of your nature as it is of Mine, for the nature you have within you is of Me. Your life is hidden in who you are in Me. All that I am in the image of My Father has been given to you. It is your inheritance—Christ in you, the hope of glory.

The intensity of the anointing is about to increase across My Body in those who have run with Me. It is that anointing you call the "Believer's Anointing" that has been bursting forth at the seams of unbelief into the land of "Who I Am as a Son."

Joy! Joy is the only description understood by man at the atmosphere in Heaven this day. The manifestation of the Sons has begun. Get ready for what is to come.

PT090504 – May 4, 2009 It Has Been Released

The liar's accusations against those I love are that "God won't do it," when I have already accomplished all things through My Son. He lies and says you aren't good enough, when in My Son all goodness has been made complete. He lies and says there is something in a life that is still lacking, when it has been proclaimed in truth that all "is finished." He has promoted the lie that I bring destruction on My Creation for their good, when I have proclaimed in truth that redemption has come from all destruction.

He lies and says you are loved only when you do well, when I in My truth have proclaimed that Mine is an everlasting love. He lies and says you must earn all blessings through your performance, when I have said in truth that all spiritual blessings in the heavenlies—in your place in Me now, through the perfect standing in My Son—have been freely given to you.

He lies and says it can't be done, when I have proclaimed in truth that all things are possible to any who believe My truth.

The accusations, the guilt, the shame all bring a lying atmosphere of pressure against the truth of who you are in Me in a complete and free, righteous and non-condemnable standing. As My Son is now at My right hand, so are you, in Him, in this earth.

The depths of My love have reached all, and all can come into the arms of My everlasting love and grace, perfectly fitted into My righteousness in the hiding place of My Son's sacrifice on each one's behalf.

The message of My love, My grace, and My truths will go forth over every form of media in an unexpected way. The world does not see that which is coming, and many who are hungry and searching are going to see the truths of who I am meet the desires in their hearts.

The assault against Truth will not prevail against those who are taking their stand in My righteousness. Their wisdom will overtake the wisdom of the world on many fronts as My truths are spread through the vast ocean of media.

Many fronts of darkness have formed and are forming to try to overspread all airwaves of communication, but I have My weapons gathering and even being loaded this hour to fire forth the truth of an everlasting and better covenant and a standing in the Son who lives forever. [I was seeing a large warehouse type building with a very large weapon being rolled out of the doors of the building as this was being said.] Even as you are seeing a picture of large weapons being rolled out of storehouses, so it is in My plan.

The anointing is increasing in My people who have sought more of Me, and the weapons of revelation and wisdom from above and the position in Me of compassion and love are coming out of the “storehouses of preparedness” at this time to begin My offensive against the darkness that has tried to prevail against My Word.

Expect the supernatural wisdom to overtake the way of the world’s wisdom. Expect monetary situations to change as My hidden ones are released into their anointings. Expect gatherings of My anointed ones to take place as I fill their hearts with more of Me and more of the truth about Me and for My plans to be deeply established in hearts that have sought more of all that is in Me.

Expect an army of those whose daily bread is prayer to rise up in a new likeness of the unity that is in Me. Expect a coming together of the like-minded who have only been after more of Me. Out of this unity I will bring forth strength and victory and will establish My plans for this hour.

Expectancy is charging the atmosphere of those who have only run with Me and they are about to see the release of many things that have to date only been manifested as dreams. Expect to see these things, for it has been released.

PT090506 – May 6, 2009
I Have Authorized You

From the least to the greatest, every member of My Body has been authorized to use My Name. Stop the questioning, stop the wavering, and just believe what I said. My Name is above every name. Believe what I said; go forth and make the enemy bow the knee everywhere you find him. I have authorized you. Now go—in My Name, says the Lord.

PT090507 – May 7, 2009
The Preparation of Expectancy

You are fast approaching that day when the comfort of the “familiar” will be no more. I have been preparing your hearts and molding the image of My Son in each one of you as with the hands of a Potter. What you have known in the external realm and what is to come are not the same. I have been getting each one ready who has kept themselves on the Potter’s wheel through fellowship with Me.

Now the time is here to set your sights on the departure from all that has been comfortable and all that has been familiar into the place of “I only see by His eyes and hear by His ears and think with His mind, for it is no longer I who live but Christ who lives in me.”

Let’s tighten the reins in this walk of the spirit and step into more, more, more of Me. I have been preparing. I have been fashioning, and I have been molding sons to serve Me in a way that is not often seen. Many will want the walk with Me that they see in you, and as they come, it will change everything that has been the known or familiar to you.

It will be important to “hear” from the perspective of My mind and plan by My wisdom. There will be wisdom for each step of the way, and wisdom will often precede the things you encounter each day. Following My lead and My direction and operating out of My mind will enable you to walk through all that will be encountered. Divisive tactics will come, but love and truth, through My mind, will always see you through.

Begin to commune with My mind on the scope of things to come. Count the cost of a life laid down for My will and the cost of serving the needs of others with My heart, and this will see you through.

Begin to see the hearts of those who are hurt and wounded and only trying to “get through” for a glimpse of the heart that is in Me.

Begin to see those who are “dying” from the wounds of abuse, whom I will raise up through each of you.

Begin to see the lost sheep gone astray who are looking and searching for the one true Way.

Begin to see the changes you will see in lives once lost, suddenly changed, who must have more of Me.

Begin to see those who are hardened and watching and see the flicker of hope they have been hiding.

Begin to see the miracles, as you have never seen, and the change this will bring to everything about you.

Begin to see the finances being used to bring about more of an opportunity for many to see Me.

Begin to see the end of the familiar and a walk in the new.

Begin to imagine what will be, for it is quickly approaching, and what has been will all be made new.

Expect the change, expect the change, expect the change. These things that have been talked about WILL be seen, and the preparation of expectancy is the place of “seeing” that which I am bringing you forward into.

So expect, expect, expect the change—expect EVERYTHING to change, even your daily walk with Me.

PT090510 – May 10, 2009
Many Wonderful Things Are Drawing Near

Some things which are due to arrive, it is close enough that I will be able to treat you as if those things were already happening. So look up—many wonderful things are drawing near. So be strong, for this is the time to forge forward, says the Lord.

PT090517 – May 17, 2009
Intercession Is Going to Become So Strong

He seems to be speaking of a time when the intercession that is interceding on the behalf of something or someone is going to become so strong that the person or persons He is using, evidently, are going to go into that [intercession] and get on a road between a problem or hell and somebody trying to get there. They would [get there] except for one problem: You are in the way.

But I saw the ability to stay in there—because of understanding it—until they emerged knowing that it was victorious.

For, indeed, He is going to reach far, far beyond what we can see and what we can see or could even possibly believe would happen. And I know that has to do with the merger of wealth, media, doctrine, and truth, and all those things.

PT090524A – May 24, 2009
The Love That I Manifest Through My Body

This love that I manifest through My Body, I manifest it in this way and according to the calling of the one; and I manifest it that way, according to the calling of the other. For not all who will begin to see people through the eyes of My compassion will act the same nor are they called to walk exactly down the same path you are. For with this comes great peace and great quietness inside of the soul. For there is a place where I can pick you up and strengthen you, and there is a place where you are picked up and strengthened continually.

Therefore, count it great joy and good news, for you have caught the paths and sometimes the roads that are leading to all that I have promised you. So be strong, you are about to hit the homerun.

PT090524B – May 24, 2009
My Mind Is for Family

“Your Kingdom come, Your will be done” starts with the new birth and then comes the growing process. And for this process, I use My family to train up the young ones and to care for their needs. It is important that My family see the “family” structure that is involved in My Church.

I am the Head, and I have a Body. And in My Body, every member is connected to that Body by virtue of the reborn spirit—none have been left as a separated part—all are connected. See in this same manner, all who have been born of My Spirit are now in My family.

There is a structure in My family, and there is a oneness that all have access to which is available through the mind of Christ, which is the mind of the Father and is revealed by the Spirit. All are connected to each other by the same spirit, and the Spirit of Truth brings the mind of Christ to that spirit through the Spirit of wisdom and revelation. Why do you think the enemy has fought so hard to destroy that which is a key to this wisdom and revelation being birthed in each child of Mine? That key is praying in tongues—it is a unifier in My Body, but the enemy has used it to divide My Body through his deceptions.

The more My children pray, the more My Spirit is able to teach them about Me and about who they now are in Me through My Son and about the full image that has been given to them as their inheritance—which is the full image of My Son—as He is, so are you in this earth. The full image is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

My Son's cry was that all would be one, even as We are One, and this inheritance has been made available through His sacrifice. The way has been made for all who believe to receive of the nature of Love and Truth and to receive of the mind of Christ, which is My mind revealed by My Spirit.

Satan's work has been to lie and destroy the very foundation of truth and to bring forth every twisted thing of his mind as "truth" so that all that has been released in this inheritance through My Son would be hidden in the lies and deceptions that he has presented as "truth." He has always come to men with questions about truth.

The foundation of our walk together is truth and the knowing of this truth. The enemy always comes to disrupt this knowing and to rob men of the truth, for faith is the knowing and the confidence in all that is truth. I am the God of all truth, and he is the foundation of all lies.

My nature is truth, his is lies. He will always try to pull men away from truth, for it is their very foundation in Me. In My family, our unity is in this truth. I have given all who are born of My Spirit the very mind of Christ, and the enemy has come to destroy this inheritance.

My mind is for family—that all would be saved—that is the mind of Christ. The discomforts that My Son suffered through as He laid His flesh to rest on a daily basis and as He walked not after the flesh but after the spirit was for the love of family—that all might be one.

This is the war that My Son fought as He brought My Kingdom into the earth. He fought the good fight of faith which puts the Word of the Father before all else and puts under foot every opposing lie that would resist the truth. It is for family that we go into war so that the fullness of the inheritance may be gained.

We are after the establishment of truth in this family and the rescuing of those who have strayed from the truth through the trickery and deception of the evil one. The enemy has twisted the truth about this family and has moved many off the foundation of love, truth, purity, and righteousness and brought in his own foundation based on the impurity of reasonings, the love of other things, and the intolerance of all that opposes his destruction of reasonings.

Many have been indoctrinated in the walk of the flesh and the unsound reasonings of the ways that lead to destruction, yet there are many within this group who are family members who have followed after these things on a search for truth and have been led by the leadership of the soul, which is the reasoning of the carnal mind, because they have had no training for their spirit, and most knowing of no such training. The truth must be brought forth through the wisdom of My Spirit to rescue the hearts that cry out for Me and wonder why I do not satisfy them in the state that they are in.

So many of the family who have walked on a wide path will be rescued in the days that are to come, for they will be willing to leave the wide path for the narrow path that leads to life in Me, and of these, many will learn through avenues you are providing and will provide that will help them find their rightful place in Me.

The path that you are on will allow My Spirit to lead you forth into the rescue of family members who have been led astray and to open the doors of our home wide for all who choose to become sons in the family of the Living God.

Yes, Sir, I'll say that: Graduation day is coming.

PT090531B – May 31, 2009
Things That Will Absolutely Amaze You

Editor's Note: The following was said before praying for prayer requests represented by the church Prayer Box.

So just as these things have been dealt with, think you not that I ordered this [prayer] and I ordered those names to be left with Me? For when I move this way, says the Lord, it is because I am free to do so.

You are going to see things that will absolutely amaze you much less moving on some of those problems that seem to have you at a stalemate.

PT090531C – May 31, 2009
I Have Given You a Word

Don't let passiveness become part of your religion. Don't take things that My Word says and truth that has been quickened in you as though it was something you can be passive over:

“And so if it happens; so if it doesn't. So what?”

Know you not this will keep other things from being answered in your life? When I tell you that I will come forward and do things for you, you should rejoice and be exceedingly glad, knowing no matter what the circumstances say, I have given you a word that I have laid My hand on your problem. You have My “logos”; you have My “rhema”—so stand strong, says the Lord.

PT090605 – Jun 5, 2009
Smell the Rain

The rain clouds of abundance are about to burst open. My paths drip with abundance, for there is grace to supply all things and to give you the ability to give to every good need. There is also now the wisdom to know the difference between what I am calling you to give to and what I am asking you to leave alone.

It is the goodness of a father's love to care for his children, and I have done that through the sacrifice of My Son. Now the inheritance has been given to all My children to walk in My paths of obedience and truth where, by faith, needs are met.

In this hour I have been separating true stewards from the ways of mammon and greed that have been embraced by many. The true path of inheritance is a pure path where the only motive is to give up all your "rights" to embrace all of My ways. And the mortification of the impurities on this path has been somewhat painful, for I have had to separate the pure out of the impure in the sons who have heard My call and responded to it. My stewards are rising out of the streams of truth and the rivers of holiness, and it makes this Father glad.

My Spirit has been waiting to release My plans at the graduation from the "schools of preparedness," and now diplomas are being handed out, and the emerging from hiddenness is the hour that is at hand.

The theme of fellowship has been a part of every phase of this "school of preparedness" and many, many have answered the call to fellowship, laying aside everything else, for fellowship is the pure foundation and the depths of the foundation of every wise steward.

Take all you have learned in this training in fellowship and continue in it as you see change come and circumstances change, for the fellowship will remain the same. And I look forward to the fellowship in this next phase of the journey as My sons walk in the provision that comes by My hand.

Look up beyond your circumstances and smell the rain.

PT090607 – Jun 7, 2009
Let the Path Become Narrower

Awake you who sleep. [Ephesians 5:14]

If you are asleep, then you are totally inattentive to that which is around you in the "awake" zone. In the "awake" zone, which is the realm of understanding, you have a relationship with the Almighty Himself as His own son through the adoption blood of His Son. This blood is as your adoption papers, and you are legally and most certainly a son of the Living and Almighty God. I have given to you citizenship in the Kingdom of the only God, who is Righteous and True. There is no other God but Me. As you truly understand this, that there is no other God but the one True God, you will see into your place of authority in Me.

When I said that mountains melt like wax at the Presence of the Lord, what does that shadow refer to in the better covenant through the very blood of My own Son? It means that mountains now melt, as if they were wax, at the presence of My sons. It means that whosoever shall say to this mountain, Be thou removed by your roots and be planted deep within the sea—where it is no longer a thing to be dealt with—and doubts not in that place in you that believes in Me, that you shall have mountains removed by your word, and that mountains shall be as if they never existed.

I have given you My authority, which is in My truth. My Word is truth and the entirety of it is truth. There are no degrees of truth. There is only truth and truth and nothing in between. The confusion has come through the deception of the ways and traditions that have been introduced as Mine but are actually of the world.

When My Word is spoken by My sons, it is as the command of My own lips; it is as the life from My own lips, for it is. All that is of truth has come from Me, the God of all truth. My Word—My truth—is eternal and is an eternal force, an eternal, authoritative force. It is the verbal unction of the Father and is full of My power by the work of My Spirit.

The eyes of the understanding are being enlightened about authority, authority, authority—Mine, which is yours—and the partnership or fellowship with the Spirit of the Living God, who is holy.

Many are now seeing truth in a way that it has not been seen—as pure and as holy. Truth doesn't change. I change not. So as you move forward into that same image of Christ, you move forward into a narrower path in Me. My Son walked a narrow, holy, and uncompromising path, and He walked in the fullness of My authority.

The god of this world had nothing in Him—nothing! This narrow path is what you walk into in greater and greater degrees, and the degree of holiness you walk in is up to you. This narrow path is the purity of My truth and My ways. It is the image of the firstborn Son. He IS the Way, the Truth and the Life, and you are being conformed to this image daily as you yield yourself to fellowship with Me by My spirit within you.

You are not left as orphans. I have given you My Spirit to be with you always, and the path you are on is a path you walk with Him. Let the path become narrower. Yield even more to the Spirit of the Living God and continue to use every key to open more and more of the doors that are the understanding of who you are in Me. Every door opens to a narrower part of the path. Enter each door and walk forth, for this is the way of your authority. As He is, so are you in this earth.

Take upon yourself the ways of the full image, wherein your love and authority in Me reside. It has all been given to you, for the inheritance is full and complete. Be as those who have gone before you who did not stop at the narrowing of the path, but ran forward and embraced it. Push into the holiness and purity that is in that image of Christ in you. You will understand more of My love and more of My authority. It is yours. It is all freely given to you through Christ in you. Take up every key; open every door. The best is through the doors that are before you.

The Compassion That Is of My Spirit

Many are hearing the call to step out of the ways of the compassion that is from the soul and not of My spirit. The compassion that is of My spirit is empowered by My grace and operates out of My mind. Conversely, the compassion that is of the human soul is out of man's own strength, his own will, and is led by man's own reasonings.

One way of compassion will require you to start and finish the task out of the operation of the soul, and the other way will require cooperation with My Spirit as you are led by My nature within you. This leadership will always have divine wisdom available to it.

One way of compassion will often bask in the sense of self-accomplishment, and the other way will humbly acknowledge the work of My grace in heartfelt gratitude. The compassion that is of the soul can sometimes be hard to distinguish when it is the familiar way of operating, but praying in tongues will release the mortifying of the soul's way of compassion and bring forward My compassion.

This is a season of freedom. Some of those things that have held on and brought confusion concerning the operation of My spirit will see their departure during this season. Because of the things that lie ahead, it is important that the needs of people are met through the leadership of My spirit rather than the reasonings of the soul.

While it is true that many good deeds are done in the name of compassion, when it is done out of the wisdom of My mind and the leadership of My spirit, it will be pure, and it will be powerful, and I will always be on display in you for who I really am.

So to the many who have questioned and wrestled with My truth and My ways, be encouraged: There is a dividing of soul and spirit available during this season that My grace is moving you into, and the dividing will bring understanding, which is always the door to freedom. As you continue to pray out the mysteries of My ways and My life in you, you shall see changes your heart has cried out for.

My Army Advances

Whosoever shall say to this mountain of everything that is in opposition to the new and better covenant, be thou removed and cast into the sea, and doubts not in his heart but believes, shall have what he says.

I have brought a new and far better covenant. Now I live, and My family lives in Me in the same image of the Father. Now the just live by the faith of the Son of God who loved them and gave all of His life for them that they might have the abundant life of being seated in the heavenlies with Me, at the right hand of the Father. My spirit is in you, and the Holy Spirit is forever with you. Together we carry forth the plans of the Father in the authority of truth, in the pureness of a just love.

The religious system has always opposed the liberty of the New Covenant, where the simplicity of truth reigns. The laws and legislations of the religious system come from the minds of men who would reason all night and express the wisdom of their learned ways. The justice of love and the ways of the Holy One have not changed, yet the world's system of religion has often come up with new and "better" ways to believe, when, in fact, nothing about Me has changed or will change, for I change not. So I have become the enemy to religion's ways and the doctrines of the minds of men.

The simple truth that I change not has confounded the reasonings of men, who in their pride think that changing out of the old ways denotes the "mastery" or seat of honor in societal ways. Evolution has at its core the resistance to the truth that I change not and that My Word is forever true. Religion has not approved of this, for it leaves no room for the intellect of the reasonings of men.

"They are as grasshoppers in our sight" is the motto that is rising to the top in My stewards. My stewards are coming forth in the truth of who the real giants are and how the enemy truly stands in the sight of the sons. You are all stewards of the nature I have given you. It is the Christ in you that you have been nurturing, protecting, and bringing forth, through My strength, into My plan for your lives.

Some of My sons have been hearing the “tromp, tromp, tromp” of the Army of the Lord as it advances toward the army of darkness into a new field of battle. This battlefield will be for the hearts of men, women, and children whom the enemy has desecrated with his aberrations and lies. His indulgences to the flesh and to the soul have been as an altar to false gods.

My army is going into these campgrounds where altars to false gods have been raised which indulge the appetites of the flesh. These altars shall be destroyed by the compassion and purity of My truth. They shall be removed by the authority I have given you and the wisdom of that mind that is in you that is also in Christ Jesus.

Some of those in the campground will snatch away their gods of self-indulgence and set up camp elsewhere, only to face My Army again and again and again until truth and authority have rescued all whose hearts have made room for Me.

Be still and hear the “tromp, tromp, tromp” of the Army that is advancing. Be still and see the might of this Army that has nothing to fear and nothing to lose, for all has been counted as loss that Christ might be gained. Let your eyes see the advancement of the troops from all corners as they advance across the land of Holiness and scatter the forces of darkness, retrieving captives and setting them free.

Don't think the enemy will go softly, and don't think his strategies may not seem at times to immobilize truth. Always remember this: The Word of the Lord is life and releases My Spirit to destroy what is in opposition to the Kingdom.

Mountains melt like wax at the Presence of the Lord, and you are learning to abide in this Presence within you. All authority has been given unto you, so there is never a lack of authority. There has only been a lack of believing your standing in Me.

You see all the signs of the enemy's deception and strategies moving his ways into the forefront of the media, but My signs too shall be seen, and My truth shall be heard. My Army advances.

As Far As I Am Concerned—It Is Unconditional

Editor's Note: This prophecy is the reference point of the prophecy following, titled “What Does Unconditional Mean to Me?”

It is no ordeal to Me to heal you, says the Lord. I already did that. It is no problem for Me to give to you that which I have already done. I do not make it hard; people make it hard, and the enemy makes it hard.

But for you who will walk in My grace and understand how I have provided these things for you, it is unconditional as far as I am concerned. But it must be approached by faith and by what I have done for you.

PT090612 – Jun 12, 2009
What Does Unconditional Mean to Me?

What does “unconditional” mean to Me? It means that you can come and lie back in the arms of Love and rest and receive. It means you must lay all of your performance—good and bad—at the foot of the Cross where those things of the Law [performance] were made whole and complete. It means that Love is merciful indeed, and Love has only the vision of the truth of who you are now in Me.

You are whole and complete in Christ Jesus. You are righteous and you are holy. You are alive in Christ. Your old man that was not righteous nor was it holy has died, and you are brand new.

It is the love of God that never, ever fails, and your Creator and your Redeemer exhibited this love when He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed of the devil, for God was with Him. The love of the Father was on display in the image of the Son when it was made known that all who call upon the Lord shall be saved.

The love of the Father, as expressed in the Son, was explicitly revealed when all who came believing received of My good ways and went away whole. This goodness, this dramatic display of My love will be openly displayed in the revival that many have longed for, spoken of, and rehearsed among themselves. This same love that was evident through My Son has not changed—it is the same today.

The Father’s love is the love that is the same yesterday, today, and forever. This love cannot be earned. It is only to be received, for it is free and limitless—without limits.

This love heals. This love restores. This love cleanses. This love delivers. This love speaks. This love reaches beyond the depths of every fault, every flaw, every frailty and weakness, and beyond the sins that are hidden from the eyes of men and says, “Come. Come. All is provided. Healing is free—it has been paid for. Come, freely receive.”

He Is Now Getting to Say Things

I am basically feeling what He is—His rejoicing—because He is getting to say things. And I don’t even understand how to measure the timeline He put in there, but it is an incredibly long time that He is getting to say things and communicate things to you and I. Can you imagine wanting to do that so bad you can hardly stand it, and you don’t have hardly anybody you can use to do it with?

Well, imagine that. Then imagine how He is now getting to communicate everything He has wanted to preceding an outpouring of His glory and power. And this thing is designed to [be] a prelude, a preparation, a running beforehand to precede His coming.

My Love Plays a Major Role in These Last Days

You will understand as you take part in the construction of what I am building, which is laid upon the chief Cornerstone and the teachings of My apostles. Yes, in My construction of this, you will come to understand even where My love plays a major role in these last days.

For do understand this: Perfect love casts out fear, and in these last days, you will have opportunity for fear. But rejoice and be exceedingly glad and know, I am there, and there is nothing to be afraid of.

I Am Ready All the Time

Editor's Note: The following was after a prayer for healing.

His heart—His heart was, when you get involved in something like this, take a firm stand in your heart. Move forward; call those things that be not as though they were.

The mind of it was: I am here, and I am ready all the time. Therefore, I have already come where you are, so you come where I am. For you will see mighty, mighty things, for they are scheduled to begin here.

Comments – That is, at least with us. That was His mind encouraging you to believe—believe.

The Call of My Spirit

“We are contending for revival” is the cry throughout My Body. The understanding of this is to be that this revival is a revival that comes from the place of the walk of the believer with Me. Out of the relationship that you have with Me, comes revival. Out of the understanding of who you are in Me, comes revival. Freedom from the prisons of tradition and doctrines of men is the place where revival walks. Out of the understanding that the Old Covenant is a shadow of the New comes revival. The revival is not a dream to be made real; it is a place of relationship with Me.

The revival is a place in Me in you, and the revival I seek is the maturing into a full man as My Body. It is not a thing on the horizon that you look for; it is a place born out of fellowship with Me. Press into the place of more of Me and less of you so that all the wonders of Christ in you will be a part of your daily walk in Me. It is a time to put aside childish things and pursue Me. This is the call of My Spirit to those who are hearing and pursuing Me.

PT090614E – Jun 14, 2009
The Path of the Intercessor

My intercessors must know that all intercession comes out of the place of intimacy, first and foremost. This is the foundation that I build. I do not call you into a place of prayer for others without first calling you into a place with Me.

It must be known that I love each one with a depth that man has not truly understood, for I am Love. I made the new nature in My image for the reason of fellowship—to restore the nature within man so that we could be one. And in that oneness, My greatest joy is in our fellowship, in the communing of your heart with Mine and Mine with yours and the sharing of our love one for another.

It must be known that the first thing in My heart is My love for you and your love for Me, and that only out of this flow of love is there strength to be sustained in the place of intercession. The sweetness of your cooperation with Me in intercession is from the strength of our intimacy, and this place of sweet and intense love is the foundation of all intercession.

My absolute joy is to visit you again and again in seasons of My love and refreshings. It is My desire for your soul to be a well-watered garden. And for those who learn to abide in My love, this is possible.

I am Love and there is no greater desire than to pour My love on you. My nature is Love and you can expect My love to draw you, refresh you, strengthen you, heal you, deliver you, sustain you, and comfort you, time and time again. I do not withhold My love from you, for I do not withhold Myself from you.

As you continue to visit Me with your love, I will continue to visit you with My love. I will conform you more and more into the image of the Love the eyes of your understanding see as I visit you in the Love that I am.

My desire is to meet the cries of the hungry, the hurting, the lost and the wounded as they reach out with pleas for the One who is Truth. As I meet the cries in the hearts of the intercessors for more of Me, I am freed to take the fullness in their hearts, which is Me, to set the captives free and to rescue the lost souls who are looking for Me. It all revolves around hearts reaching out and being filled with more and more of Me. This is the foundation of our walk and anything outside of this leaves one dry and empty.

Stay on the quest for Me. Stay on the “hungry” path that is satisfied only by Me. Stay on the path that must have more and more of Me and needs the sustenance that is in intimacy with Me. This is the path of the intercessor in Me: the quest for more and more of the love that comes from Me.

Your Future Is Being Worked

Editor’s Note: The following was spoken after a testimony that was given.

Listen and be encouraged. Look ahead of this testimony and see what I have planned for you. For wherever I manifest it, that is where I will work. So be strong and of good courage; your future is being worked.

You Can Tell It to Go

You think it is too hard for Me to take care of that problem that is causing you torment? Ask of Me and see.

This is your choice. You can live in the torment or you can tell it to go. Did I not say that prophecy would be in proportion to faith that’s been given? Don’t you know that when I have a voice, that I get to speak to you and tell you those things that will set you free? For you do not have to live in that torment. Tell it to go and rejoice. Lift your hands to Me and worship, and you will see—My Presence will replace that one.

PT090622 – Jun 22, 2009
I Am the Everlasting Love

It is often said, “I’d do anything,” or “I’d do almost anything for my children.” For such is the love of a parent for his children. And as the Father of spirits, I have done everything for My children. None of it was asked for; none of it was earned. It was all provided for on the basis of My love. I have provided a place for each child who comes into this family by his choice, as if he alone was the only one ever to exist.

All of My love I give to each one and of this love there is no end. I give each one full inheritance, and I give each one My undivided attention. I am earnestly attentive to even the slightest whisper in the heart. I see all things and know all things and I am merciful even when mercy seems not to fit, for I know every thought and the intent of every heart. My mercies fail not.

I love each child as if he were My first, My last, or My middle child; there is no preference with Me. All are loved with an uncompromising love that is faithful each and every day. The faithfulness of My love never changes. The sincerity of My love remains the same. Who I was yesterday is who I am today and who I will be for all eternity. There is no changing with Me. I am a place of rest and safety and a constant love indeed.

I do not balk at man’s failings. I do not draw back when anger is released toward Me. I see the ones I love with a heart that is all knowing. Many times the railings of men toward Me come from hearts that are searching yet are unable to see beyond the reasonings they consider to be truth. These reasonings are not grounded in the truth of all that I have said and all that I am. In their reasonings they approach Me, and in their reasonings they draw back. And on and on they go in this manner until they are willing to lay aside their reasonings for that which is truth and the only truth—My Word. And so it goes.

Many in My family have almost no understanding of who they are in Me and who I am. These shaky foundations have caused much quibbling and dissension within our family unit. I stand in the patience of who I am with a heart that longs for men to know Me and abide in the place of communion with Me that I have provided. Doctrinal issues have always been a source of division and will continue to be. Many wars have been fought based on doctrinal divisions of men’s beliefs, but there is only one Way and one Truth, and this has been provided in My Son.

My heart yearns for men to know Me. I am the everlasting Love—My love is everlasting. And this love is the basis of all that I have done and all that I do. This place of rest in Me is eternal and is unmerited. Many are those who fear My wrath based on men’s traditions, men’s doctrines, and the enemy’s accusations. They walk in fear that is not a godly fear but an unfounded fear.

I am the everlasting Love. I am the Love who lasts forever. I am the Love who never fails. I am the Love who keeps My Word. I am the Love who fails not, and I am the Love who never changes. My ways are stable and My ways are pure. I am a Love who is like no other love, and this Love is eternal.

This Love has provided a door into all that I have done. This door is My Son. This door is entered in by a choice and not based on any other thing. All who desire to come through this door may come. None who desire entrance into this family of love are denied—none. Much of mankind does not know of this door and all that is gained by entrance into the door of My Son's own life, which He gave so that all might know Me.

I am the everlasting Love. I am the everlasting Healer. I am the everlasting Joy. I am the everlasting Peace. I am the everlasting Wisdom. I am the everlasting Strength. I am the Everlasting God, and all is provided for by Me, and all is provided for free. My love has no end. My healing has no end. My strength has no end. My joy has no end. My wisdom has no end. My peace has no end. My love has no end, no limits, no restrictions.

All that I am and all that I have done for My creation is free to all who will receive. I am the everlasting, eternal Love. It is this Love that yearns for additions to the family. It is this Love that yearns for all to come and partake of all that has been done and to partake freely. There is no way into the benefits found in Me other than "free." All that was required has been paid in full through the blood sacrifice of My Son, and now all may come to receive. This is the nature of the One who is Love: Come, freely receive.

Now Is the Season of Worship

Paths or places in Me are being stepped into that many have cried out for, and paths are being entered that many have been called to but have not yet walked in. It is a season of worship and a season of paths being stepped into.

Some of these paths have to do with parts of calls and vocations that have been known or sensed, but outside of Me, there has been no ability to walk in them. It has been necessary to wait with Me as I have done My work of preparation within each one. Now these things are being opened up.

For many, calls and vocations are being entered into by the locomotion of desires. The certainty of calls and vocations are beginning to be recognized, and in this, desires are being awakened to walk in these things.

The waiting and the preparation have come to the season of birthing, and now these things are being set in motion.

Within this season that is emerging is the cocoon of worship. All of these things spoken of are a necessary part to the outpouring you are preparing for. Worship is a necessary ingredient to bring forth the things within you that you know as revival: your walk in Me and your walk with Me—the walk of the spirit. And worship is a necessary ingredient to the sustaining of these things.

Just as My Son was called away to My Presence, so are you. Many have not understood the abiding in this secret place with Me that sustained Him. This ingredient of worship is an ingredient in your walk by which My wisdom often enters in and instruction is easily brought forth. As My worship becomes quite pronounced in this season, many questions shall be answered that have been placed in My hands. Much wisdom shall be available as you enter into this holy and sweet place with Me.

It will be a time of hearts being opened to Me in areas I have not yet been invited into. It will be a time of deeper surrender and deeper healings. It will be a treasured time when many things are released. Don't expect to walk through this time without resistance, but do expect My Presence and do expect My victory, for I am with you and My Word is your truth. You will be sustained in all things in this place of worship with Me.

I have been preparing hearts and stirring up desires, for hearts have been pursuing Me. This worship will bring forth things within that are from Me, and plans that have been carried within many will be brought forth as a birthing in Me. I want to bring things out of your new nature by the process of you opening yourself to Me through worship. In this place where you are opening your heart to Me and offering all that you are to Me, I am able to come with My heart, My compassions, and My desires and fill you. I am able to come with the wisdom of My ways and instruct you with the understanding of who I am and who you are so that you will emerge from this season changed into more of My image.

As you offer up more of who you are in the place of worship, I am able to give to you more of who I am. The result will be more of Me and less of you, and you will walk in a greater strength out of your new man.

There is a deep strength and peace that comes from this place of worship. As you pour forth your love for Me out of your new man, I am able to come and inhabit those places in your life I have not yet been given entrance to. I desire all of you just as you desire all of Me, and worship opens your heart, allowing Me to enter in with My love, My peace, My strength, and My healing. Enter into this place of worship and sweet communion with Me, knowing that all are received—all are received.

This will be a season of worship when many will find themselves in new places with Me that their hearts have desired but have not yet attained to. Now is the season of worship that you have allowed Me to bring you into. Now is the season of My love for you and your love for Me. Let your heart be open with Me. Let your soul engage itself in worshipping Me, and envision the One who invites you in with arms opened wide for you. Envision the One who loves you and gave the Son He loved—for you. Envision the One who says every moment of every day: You are loved.

You are loved. The door of My heart is always open. Enter in.

Here Is My Heart—I'm Just Glad You're Here

Here is My heart, and this same heart is a part of you. Remember when I said the fast would go faster and the slow would go slower? And this has been so. And remember also when it was said to leave those who are slowing down in My hands? Many have done just that, and I am pleased. I know for some this has not been easy. Now, one more thing—guard the heart.

Guard your heart, for out of it flows the things of My life, and My life is love. Be careful that no scorn or disdain is allowed in for the slow going slower, for you know not the desires in those hearts who struggle with the stronger pull of the flesh that they have not yet gotten in check. The enemy would like to come in with a disdain and with scornful attitudes, and these are not found in My life within you. Guard yourself from these things and let My compassion and wisdom rule.

Many who have left the fast track will return, and I ask that you keep a place in your heart for them as I do. Let your heart say the same thing that I do—"I'm just glad you're here." The doors of My heart are always open, and I expect the same of you.

Many in My Body go slow and think they go fast, but their hand is holding onto Me and never letting go. Hold onto them on My behalf and strengthen them through your prayers. I look for avenues to come in through each of you. Your authority is needed.

Don't disdain the slow, instead let your hearts begin to see them through My eyes—the eyes of a Father looking for the return of those who have strayed, and ready at every moment to encourage those who have slowed their pace. I look; I wait; I love—ever ready to say: I'm just glad you are here.

Note: The first time a word was spoken that the fast will go faster, and the slow will go slower was in October of 1998. And then in October of 2008, the exhortation came to leave in the Lord's hands those who had gotten behind, thereby letting go of "false responsibility."

He Is Pleased With the Truth

He is pleased. He is pleased with what is happening here now. He is pleased because He has been this way before, so He knows, of course, what follows.

Obviously, to be pleased—what is going to follow, it is going to be really, really good.

So, what He was saying is that He is pleased. He is incredibly pleased with the truth that's coming out of here now. He is pleased with the truth that's coming out of here.

It's good that you learn to worship Him for what you don't see, because wait until you see the kind of worship that takes place when you do.

PT090705B – Jul 5, 2009
More of Me and Less of You

More of Me and less of you is a common cry from the hearts of those in My Body, and there is a path into this which has no limits. Learn to give yourself to more of Me and less of you by giving more to My path and less to your path. The things that are necessary to this have been laid out for you and are up to you to fulfill.

These things include praying much in other tongues, for the revelation of Paul, who prayed in tongues "more than you all," is available. Take My Word and spend time ingesting it, and let it be the joy and rejoicing of your heart as it is filled with My truth. Take extra time with Me in the sweetness of private worship, even when the sweetness of it seems hard to attain. It will come if you faint not.

Take to heart My mind on fasting and adhere to the leadership of My spirit within you and allow the practice of the death of the old man and the strengthening of the new man to take place so that My peace can rule within. And spend time letting your ears be attentive to My voice so you can be very familiar with it, for it shall be necessary to follow My voice and My leadership within you.

Take the time to follow after more of Me and lessen the time of following after your own self, for your life has been purchased by Me. I have places in Me for you that you have not attained to but are within your reach through your fellowship with Me.

For those who will hear, I am calling for more of Me and less of you. This is what you have been called to and what you have been born into—My life within you. It is a time of more of Me and less of you, and I have laid out the path to this. If you will hear, you will walk in it. Take heed to what you hear from Me.

PT090708 – Jul 8, 2009
The School of My Spirit

Do you remember the school of the prophets spoken of in My Word? I have My school of prophets for today, and it is the school of My Spirit. It is the development of the new nature and the ear for My voice within that nature.

The school of My Spirit is the way I desire to teach all of My children no matter My plan for them. It is in this training that communication lines are opened and hearts are changed and lives restored. It is through this school that I can pour forth My truth through My Spirit of truth.

Each call has individuals within that call, and what one is called to, another is not. As diverse as My people are, so are the diversities of My calls, yet men have attempted to train according to their understanding and even their traditions, and this is not My best.

My best is for each individual to devote their time to earnest fellowship with Me. My best is for the hearts of each one to hear and follow Me. My best is for hearts to be trained in the maturation of their spirit and the mortification of those things outside of My nature. My best is true devotion to Me through the work of My grace so that My heart beats as one with each one who walks with Me.

My Son was truly devoted to Me. He considered not His life as His own. He considered Himself in this world, but He knew from whence He came. This is the walk of the spirit that is available to all who offer themselves to My Spirit of grace and truth. I am the God of all grace, and as each one places himself in My hands through the process of fellowship, My grace is free to come, and I can shape and mold each heart into a pure vessel for My use.

I have been training vessels for My use in the school of My Spirit, and not all will be pleased at the work of My hands in these vessels, for it will challenge the work that has been of their hands and not Mine. Even so, My handiwork will prevail.

Those who are hungry, who have been trained in ways other than My best, will hunger for this place in Me of true fellowship and will come to be trained in seasons of intensity with Me. They will be hungry to know how to walk in the same paths and will come to find for themselves what this school of My Spirit is, and their lives will be changed.

It makes no difference what others say if it does not agree with Me. You are free to keep your focus on Me. The world is going to see My plan of diversity, for there are similar calls and similarities within these calls, but there are many diversities within each call. And this must be allowed to be, for I must have the individuality within My Body to make My Body complete. The diversities of joints and ligaments and parts within My Body must be for My Body to BE the fullness that is in Me.

Many may frown at the diversities they see, but I will also use this [revealing of diversities] to bring forth the hungers for more and more of Me and to enable My Body to see Me, helping it be complete. There is fullness to My glory and part of this has to do with the diversity that is within Me. In Me is all the fullness, and this is what I am bringing forth to be seen.

Be Bold! Be Changed!

The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth. The enemy comes—always to steal the Word. Your faith is the substance of things hoped for; it is all the evidence you need of those things you cannot yet see. Be established in the place called “Done.” Be established in the Word of righteousness—it is the only truth.

My Word is truth. The entirety of My Word is truth. You do not wrestle in your circumstances nor in your thoughts or feelings about circumstances around you. This is the realm of flesh and blood—the natural realm—and your war is not against the natural realm in which there is flesh and blood. All of your wrestling is against the darkness. Your wrestling is against the realm of darkness that is against the light within you. Your wrestling is not against the emotions you deal with and the thoughts that are in conflict with My truth. The wrestling is against the enemy and his doctrine that he works to establish in this earth. Have I not said to speak to the mountains? These mountains are the works of darkness against My truth. My Word is light and life and power and will transform you and will overcome the powers of darkness, for light overcomes all darkness.

I bring your attention to My Word. I bring your attention to the truth. The enemy comes to steal the Word. My people differ from the kingdom of darkness, for My people are filled with My life and My truth. How much truth they are filled with is by their choosing. How much strength they walk in is by the same choice process. Nevertheless, the enemy comes to steal this Word, and then he comes to tell you that My Word is not truth. My Word is pure. My Word is truth. I am not a man that I would lie; there is only truth in Me, for I am the Truth.

In this war you are engaged in, you have one weapon that will stand the test, and that is My Word. Sing to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs and be filled with My Spirit. Immerse yourself in the worship of the One who is Truth and lavish your love on Me for the riches of My truth. It is My truth that sustains you, for it is your bedrock. It is the foundation that is unshakeable. It is the foundation that endures.

You must be very mindful that your enemy comes to shake you so that you let go of My truth and fall for his lies. He comes to steal the Word. If the Word is the bread you eat and the life that fills you, you will not be shaken. As you continue to fill yourself with My Word, you will be conformed to that which fills you. You will walk in the truth of who you are, and nothing can stand before truth.

I have come that all might have life and that more abundantly. I have come to fill all those who will be filled with the very fullness of My fullness, which is My truth. I am the God of all truth, and every part of My nature is truth. When the blind see and the lame walk, it is because it is My truth. It is the truth of My Word and the truth of My nature—they are intertwined. To walk in My fullness is to walk in My truth. It is to walk in the understanding of your righteousness and to live in the grace of My Spirit. To walk in My fullness is to understand the fellowship of My Spirit that you have been called to.

How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed of the devil, for God was with Him—this is the fullness you are called to. In this fullness is the full partnership of My sons with My Spirit. His Presence with you is close and permanent. It is constant. Nothing is held back; all has been given to you. Now you are closer than you have ever been to walking in this fullness. But a war must be fought, for the enemy will not go softly.

Do not wait. Do not wait. Do not wait for the appearance of the enemy's forces as the signal to go to war. As the Lord of Armies, My command is: "Go!" As the Lord Victorious, My command is: "Go!" Go into the land of My glory. Go into the land of My fullness. Go into the land of who you are. Go forth and take no captives. Leave all evidence of the enemy behind you.

If the enemy says you need to fear, take My Word and decree who you are in that spirit that has no fear. If the enemy says you are not able, take My Word and speak the truth of your ability in Me—your ability to do all things in Me. If the enemy says there are no resources, take My Word and defy the lies, for your place by grace is abundance. If the enemy says there is no hope, announce your standing in the God of all hope. Announce to hopelessness that with your God, nothing is hopeless, and all things are possible.

Your thoughts must agree with My thoughts. If a thought is in opposition to My mind and My ways, overcome the enemy's lies with truth—My Word is truth. Be established in My truth. My apostles have taught that you are who My Word says you are. My apostles of faith taught that you can have what My Word says you have. It is time to embrace these truths again as if they were new treasures. Let the excitement of "new" capture your heart with these truths. You ARE who My Word says you are, and you CAN do all that you are called to do by My Spirit. It is time to walk in these truths.

My Spirit waits to bring forth My Kingdom. He waits to bring forth My will wherever He finds a partnering son to work with. Learn to yield even more to My Spirit. Learn to yield even more to your identity in My Word. You are new. You are light. You are greater than he that is in the world. You are righteous. You are free. You are healed. You are prosperous. You are joint heirs with the One who sits at the right hand of God, who made an open show of the enemy.

Be bold to speak My truth. Be bold to say who you are. Be bold to say what you have. Be bold to say whose you are. Be bold to say the Word. Be bold! Be changed! Be transformed—the door to My fullness is open.

I Will Share With You My Heart

Why is it that My children fail to appreciate spending time listening to Me? Why is it that they fail to appreciate the value of My spoken word, of Me speaking to them a present hour word? Don't they realize the value that I place on My ability to communicate with them? Don't they realize the extent to which I have gone to make this available to My children? The limits that I was willing to go to in order to make available to My children the ability to hear Me?

Do you think that I don't value this? Do you think it is insignificant, not worth your time, to pursue what I would have to say to you?

In the future, develop a habit of practicing to hear Me and expect to hear Me—don't expect not to. Consider it a rare thing if I don't want to speak to you. Consider it a rare thing if I am not standing here waiting to speak to you.

How rich it is to be able to communicate with My children. Consider the centuries that passed when all I could do before the Cross is manifest Myself to certain individuals. That was all that was available. And now, after the Cross, the avenue has been established, and so few take the time to take advantage of what I have made available through the Blood of My Son for My children to hear Me, to fellowship with Me.

This is not meant to be condemnation. It is just a sense of disappointment because not more care enough to sit at My feet and listen to Me. I am not condemning; I am just sharing with you how I feel about it.

If you will sit at My feet, I will speak to you, and I will share with you My heart.

PT090722B – Jul 22, 2009 Wake Up to Who You Really Are “Wake up” is the call to live in the spirit. It is the call to wake up to the realm you are called to live in, which is the realm of the spirit within you. It is the call to wake up to who you really are and to live fully in Me.

You are called to live by that nature within you and not by the mind of the intellect and the senses of the flesh. Although these are a part of your natural life, you are called to wake up to the spirit that is within you and the light that is My life within you.

The spirit within you is life, and it is the life you are called to live by. What difference is there between those who have My spirit but live not by it and those who have not My spirit? There is often no marked difference between the two because they are both living out of the intellect, their own reasonings, and the sense or carnal realm.

It is time to wake up to the life within, which is My image in you. My image has a way that is life, yet many, many who are made in My image know little of the way of the spirit. I am calling out to those who will hear Me: Wake up to My life in you—in all things.

Wake up to the truth of My image in you. Wake up to the transforming process that you have yet to walk in so that you may live in My fullness. Wake up to the mind of Christ that is yours to live in and be renewed out of the intellect and into only the mind of the spirit, which is one with My mind. Wake up to the peace that is solid and to the joy of unseen things, for your spirit is one of faith. There is a wake up call to the nature you have been given, which is in the same image of the One who is Love. This life of love within you is easily moved by compassion and is merciful and full of good fruit.

Wake up to the fellowship of My Spirit within your spirit. There is much more to walk in—a fellowship that is as natural as breathing the air you breathe. It is a fellowship your spirit was made for and thrives on.

Wake up to My Word and the reality of it. In this reality is the picture of who you now are in Me. Wake up to what? Wake up to My life in you. Wake up to your life which is now in Me. Wake up to the reality of truth—My Word is truth. Wake up to the fellowship of the Spirit and the dimension of “all possibilities” that has been given to you through My Spirit who is with you. Wake up to the ways of My nature and the mind of Christ that has been given to you. Wake up and be transformed; be changed.

Wake up—be alert and aware of My Presence with you and in you. Wake up—be alert and aware of the reality of what My Word says about our relationship. Wake up—be alert and aware of the image of My Son and see yourself as a co-heir of the nature of the First Born. The fullness of this nature, His image, has been given to those who are Mine.

Wake up—be alert, be aware of the truths of My Word about you and all you are now able to do through My nature and My Spirit with you. Be alert, be aware—you have My authority and you have My Spirit who is with you.

So I say: Wake up, because My Body has dreamed of walking in My fullness, but they have not awakened to the reality of it. They have slept through these truths that My Body is My fullness in this earth. Who the Son is in the image of the Father is the image I have given to My sons as joint heirs with Him—My fullness in Him, His fullness in you. Wake up—this reality awaits you.

Great Change Awaits You

In this season of change that is being entered into, I am making available a new way of walking with Me to all who will receive. In this season, you will be able to step out of hindrances and the mindsets connected to them into a liberty and freedom like you have not seen.

You will face giants and you will fight battles, but there is grace for all to prevail. What you have perceived as truths, which are not truths, can give way for truth as you are diligent to pursue Me.

For those who have wanted to carry more of Me, this is your season. For those who have wanted to walk in less of “you,” this is your season. For those who have cried out for more truth, this is your season. For those who have wanted to see more of who I am, this is your season. For those who have wanted to go faster, this is your season. For those whose hearts have cried, “I AM FREE!” this is your season. For those who have hungered for those times in My love, this is your season. It is the season of more of Me, and whatever your heart has cried “More!” for: This is your season.

It is a banquet season for more of Me. Don’t come to the table for just one or two items in Me. Come and partake freely. There is grace to receive much more of Me, and hunger and diligence are all you need. And there is grace for this, indeed.

Many have been sensing the call to worship, and this is from Me. As you draw near to Me, I will draw near to you. And great will be the rewards of this season of drawing very near to Me. There is grace to enter into new understandings of Me. And there is grace for new freedom, a new liberty, to access that unlimited love that your heart needs. The refreshings to be had will be DEEP waters of refreshing. There are very deep waters of cleansing, healing, and restoration that may be entered into during this season.

It is a season of change, and great strength will be found in the deep waters of worship. As the deep waters of your love call out to the deep waters of My love, an exchange will take place, and My love will be exchanged for your love, and My strength will be exchanged for your strength, and you will be changed. The wholeness in Me will be traded for the hurt places in you. My fullness will be exchanged for lack of fullness in your body and in your soul. My truth will come. My truth will prevail.

As you receive of My love through the pouring out of yours, you will find places in Me you have not known before to be more easily accessed through the grace you have entered into. This is a season I have longed for and have been eagerly anticipating as I have walked with you in your journey with Me.

The enemy will come, but there is safety in the hiding place of My Presence where My truth abounds. Lavish your love on Me from My nature within you. Let My Word and My love pour out of your spirit to Me, and you will find that the depths of My love and My truth will pour from My Spirit to you. I will abound in My response to you in this season of My love, My grace, and My truth. Oh, enter into My love. Great change awaits you.

There Is No Need to Fear

To those with a sense of fear or trepidation, I say: There is no need to fear the giants; there is no need to be in dread of the battles you will face in your walk with Me. There is no need to fear.

Do you battle on your own? Do you battle in your own strength or your own wisdom? Haven't I made My grace available, and isn't My strength yours? Have I not freely given you My mind through My Spirit, and has not My authority been given to you?

Whose inheritance do you share, if not My own with My Son? Are you not made partakers of My own nature? Has not all provision been given to you by My grace?

Expect! Expect! See who you really are in Me and expect!

The great King David did not win battles in his own might or his own strength. He relied on Me. With one stone he slew a mighty giant. In like manner, with one truth you can put giants under your feet. In the grace of your God, you can slay your enemies that have been lying to you.

It is no small thing to live your life in Me. Everything you are now in Me is your victory. And all of My Word is your truth and overcomes every deception the enemy uses against you. You are overcomers in Me, and you need not fear what the enemy brings. See yourself in Me.

See yourself in Me—see yourself in the armor of who you are in Me. Walk in this righteousness. “See” in this righteousness. Live in this righteousness. Be aware of your life in Me and overcome this dread of your enemy. This is not of Me. He is the one who has already been defeated. The victory is yours.

Rise up in courage and face your enemy of dread. Face your enemy of fear and trepidation and say only what the Word says about your standing in Me that is a standing without fear. You have overcome all your enemies in your place in Me. You have been given the victory over your enemy, and your next step is to confront the lies. Stop them with My truth and address the deceptions that crowd your thinking with My authority that you have been given. There is no need to fear. I have given you the victory every step of the way. Now walk in it. I am with you.

What Is Required to Produce Fruit

Most in the sound of the voice of this message, even this hour, have heard these truths to the point I could send you to the nations and you could teach it. But the knowledge of these truths is not what's required to produce fruit, because fruit requires change. My heart's desire for you, says the Lord, is not so much to run off and teach it but to sit still and do it.

I am calling for a people who once and for all will allow My Spirit to retrain their mind with the very physics, life, and truth of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Many are those who have heard from afar, but few are those who draw near to be taught by My Spirit. Yet even as I speak these words, I speak with great love and great affection. You are very near My plan for your life—closer than the enemy wants you to think.

Become the good ground. Do not fall for the same deceptions the enemy has used for these many centuries. Become the good ground that My fruit may multiply until My Son's return. Know that you are greatly loved.

PT090809A – Aug 9, 2009
He Is Expressing His Pleasure

He loves us. He appreciates, takes pleasure—"love" is a little stronger even. But He was expressing how much He appreciated you for the stand that you are taking and will continue [to take] all the way—like the woman who prayed, and her eyes beheld Jesus.

So He is expressing His pleasure—He wants you to know.

PT090809B – Aug 9, 2009
The Latter Times of Your Life—Enjoyment and Peace

The latter times of your life will be spent in enjoyment and peace. For these things come from knowing who I am and who you are that you might walk—despite what's going on in the world and around you—that you might walk in this peace that I have given you.

PT090816A – Aug 16, 2009
Something Is on the Horizon

There will be great celebration in the land when this “jubilee” comes to pass that you’re believing for—great celebration.

When somebody has a hand cut off or an eye missing, never talked, and all of a sudden, they jump up whole, I don’t think you’re going to go, “Oh, my, that was interesting.”

No. This is the first time that I’ve ever heard something like that about “jubilee.” So something is on the horizon. Something is on the horizon.

It will be a wonderful time of harvest for many whom you have believed for. For many whom you believed for, I will have what I need to bring it to that level.

PT090816B – Aug 16, 2009
You Can Receive It a Whole Lot Faster

When you discover these things and give yourself to them, they are received line upon line, precept upon precept as He brings you forward with His love.

He gave me the key. I fought my way in, but when it is being ministered, and you understand His grace, you can receive it a whole lot faster than I did. I had to learn along the way. That place called “Done” came out of there because I began to understand what He would do.

In the beginning [of this exhortation], He said something about a prayer that He uses to change—like He wants to get in, and He wants authority to get into people’s lives at times and change them. That frees Him to answer prayer.

PT090826A – Aug 26, 2009
You Might as Well Enjoy Yourself

You might as well enjoy yourself now on this level of the war because there is not going to be a time he [the enemy] doesn’t try to stop us. We just happen to be in a time when we are in a transition.

It’s okay; we are finding out enough about the other place to go there. And then we will be taking pleasure, but it will be because it is in front of us, and not the pleasure of taking pleasure by faith because you can “see” what you cannot [presently] see.

PT090826B – Aug 26, 2009
Why I Put a Hook in Your Jaw

For this cause you cannot follow another—can the blind lead the blind? There are none—there are none except those in My Word for you to follow in this hour. That is why I put a hook in your jaw, and I drew you here by My Spirit—for your hunger.

You cried out to Me and said, "God, I want truth; I want truth; I want truth!" So in answer to your prayer, I put a hook in your jaw, and I drew you to this message that you may sit and be taught by Him who can bring you into the fullness of these things, says the Spirit of Grace.

PT090826C – Aug 26, 2009
The Hooks the Enemy Uses

Strifes, division, envy, jealousy, pride—these are the hooks the enemy uses. He puts those in your jaw to draw you away from My message of truth. Few there be who will sit in the burnings until the purging is complete. But My floor must be purged. That which is chaff must go so that what remains is birthed of My Spirit and manifested in your flesh.

PT090901 –Sep 1, 2009
The Door to “More” Is Held Open

Will you put aside your life for Me in a greater measure? Will you put aside the little pleasures of the soul that distract you from your forward progress in Me?

Many of you have surged forward into new places in Me, but there is more. I am leading you, as swiftly as you will allow Me, into more new places in Me. These places in Me are new to you but not to Me. They are your inheritance in Me, and these places are attained through deeper levels of understandings in Me.

I want more of you so that I can fill you with more of Me. Many have come to a new place in Me and are beginning to tap into the understanding of it. Yet even as you “look around” this new level of relationship with Me and its peace, I am holding open the door to more—more of you in Me and more of Me in you.

Don't stop! I say to you even before you have begun to explore this new place with Me: Don't pause; don't rest. Stay in the press to reach into more of who you are in Me and who I am in you.

It has been said time and time again how pleased I am with each of you, and even as I say this, by My Spirit I draw you into more of Me, which means less of you. There are things I am moving each of you into, and many of these things have yet to be revealed. The course you are on is to keep your eyes absolutely fixed on Me, to keep your heart fastened to My Word, and your affections tied to heavenly things and not earthly needs. This course has not changed.

As your path seems to be unfolding swiftly before you, you must, you MUST keep yourselves, above all else, fastened to Me, for I alone see the table I am setting before you so that you may serve a banquet in Me.

There will be many who will fault the course you have laid hold of in Me, but I have set the path before you, and you are only accountable to Me. Continue on in Me. The urgency you sense is from Me, for I see what you have yet to see.

The door to “More” is held open. Come into more of the understanding of Me. Come into more of the inheritance that has been given to you in Me. Come into My love. Come, come and see more of Me.

PT090906A – Sep 6, 2009
He Will Assist You

For in times past, [He is] speaking to me; I came to the end of how much I could extend the worship to Him and adoration. I came to my limit—to the end of it—and He stepped in with the power of the Holy Spirit. And in the same way He will bring a message or give you a revelation, He kept moving me forward in it, teaching me how and more about that love until every time He would visit me—and I would be able to express it [the worship] more powerfully each time. So He wouldn't leave me hanging, trying to find words for what was growing in me.

That's what He was saying: That for you to love Him, He will assist you as you begin to give yourself to Him—He will—that's what He said.

In part of that tongue, He brought me back and said, "Do you remember when I'd teach you more [about] how to give yourself over to Me, and teach you more?"

PT090906B – Sep 6, 2009
Love—It Won't Leave Anything Out

When a man decides to walk this walk—when you make it to one place, it prepares you to go to the next. When you make it to that place, it prepares you to go to the next.

At one point that love is developing in us, it "escapes" and does everything it's supposed to. It won't leave suffering alone. It won't leave the miracle out. It won't leave the hospitals out. It won't leave anything out.

PT090906C – Sep 6, 2009
What You Are Looking for Is Me

Most are searching for something and they don't know what. They fill that [search] with "things," and it is still there [the search]. What you are looking for is Me. What you are looking for is Me, says the Lord. For nobody or nothing can fill that place that I fill. I am what you are searching for.

Do you think that I do not know those things that are in your heart? Who has that key of forgiveness? Who is it that can extend what I can extend to you, says the Lord? For I will make you free; I will give you peace.

PT090906D – Sep 6, 2009
He Is Here With Healing

He is saying, when He steps in and orders a part of the service: For you who yield yourselves over in the giftings of My Presence, the unusual can take place."

I think that's another way of saying: He is here with healing.

PT090909 – Sep 9, 2009
He Is Intent on Persuading Us

He says He is intent on persuading us to the same level that we are His child that we used to be persuaded we were man's child. That's exactly where He is taking us.

PT090916 –Sep 16, 2009
Keep Your Eyes Narrowly Focused

Beware of the spirit of religion that demands “holiness” on the outside and not on the inside. Beware of those rules and regulations that come in causing men to conform to each other's ways rather than My ways.

My work is an inside work, and its fruit will follow the flower of beauty which is My work of Truth on the inside. As men are conformed to My Truth, the natural will follow, for the natural always follows the spiritual. Just as a seed, so is My Word—first the inside work that is hidden, then the outside work that is revealed.

The spirit of religion is going to have a great emphasis on the “outside” appearance without promoting the work of My Word on the inside. My work is an inside work that manifests in fruit “hanging” on the outside for all to see. And abundant is the fruit for the picking, just as in a healthy, fruit-laden tree. The spirit of religion does “nice” things and demands to be seen, while the spirit of true holiness is intent on the pleasure that comes from Me.

Beware of the leaven of men whose substance is from the works they demand from others. These “leaveners” demand the outward works for their sake and neglect the inward work that comes from My hand. They teach the false doctrines of sacrifice by others—for their sake. But My hand moves according to the heart of men, according to My Word, for My pleasure and blessings are already with those who have accepted salvation according to My plan.

Religion works and works so that I might bestow My blessing, and it denies the abundance of grace that comes from Love's hand. I am rich in blessings. I am rich in abundance, and endless mountains of grace are always available by My hand.

The leaveners are coming to add to the lump of leaven that is in place, and many shall eat of this bread. But My Word is the true Bread, and that which is pure and undefiled is coming from those who walk with Me closely. In this I am pleased.

There shall arise confrontation affecting young and old alike as the leaveners appear as those who are “holy.” I am opening doors for the pure Bread to be preached, and I am opening doors to supersede the mammon of those whose bread is not of Me.

My Spirit inoculates against deception by caring for the seed that is planted within and is of Me. As I said in My Word, through My Spirit's help, you can build yourself up in the ability to believe and perceive that which is truth and of Me. This message, which has matured in the hearts of many by the work of My Spirit, is about to see a greater release to hearts hungering for the pure Word that is unleavened and sets the sons free.

Make no room for the unclean. Settle all factions with truth and leave the rest to Me. You must keep your eyes on Me and on the path that is pure and clean. Factions will try to come, but you must keep your eyes on Me and the course I have laid before you of fellowship in Me. Leave room for nothing else but staying on course with Me.

I have specific assignments and targets for you to hit that will demolish camps of the enemy, but this will only be done by staying on this narrow path into more of Me. Keep your eyes narrowly focused on more of Me.

Stay the course for more of Me, for great jubilation will soon be seen. Stay the course into more of Me.

My Earnest Desire Is to Heal You

Editor's Note: The following was before prayer for children. Because Jesus took our infirmities and bore our pains, the following promise is still available. [Matt 8:16,17]

This is close to My heart as I know that it is close to your heart. See; see what I will do, says the Lord. See what I will do. Don't you know that if you doubt not in your heart that you will have what you are believing for? For to whom is it hard to doubt My willingness to heal children? Therefore, lift up your hearts, lift up your faith and believe Me.

I don't know if there are babies in the hospital—if you are believing in a general respect for them. I saw a crowd that looked like five or six and under, but it's okay, you know, we will take a teenager anytime.

When you have that helpless feeling, and you look up toward Me—any child can give those who love them a helpless feeling when they are in pain. Imagine, says the Lord, when you look up to Me as a child, My earnest desire is to heal you.

PT090920B – Sep 20, 2009
He Has Called Many to Children

I heard something else: There is going to be a great revival amongst children's diseases. He is so interested in it this morning; I can hardly hear anything else.

You look into their little eyes and they don't understand why the other kids are running, and they are just sitting there. They don't know [why].

I heard something else: For this reason He has called many. And you will think that it is increased; no, this is what He has always had in mind, just you will find out about it.

But there will be from this point on a recognition of more and more people who believe their ministry is called to children—healing and teaching.

Neglect Not My Spirit

Even as these truths are coming forward, know and understand that these things are not mentally discerned. Although these lessons can prepare the way somewhat like John the Baptist prepared the way, know this: Your transformation to walk these messages will come by your fellowship with My Spirit and no other way.

Yes, these messages can prepare the way, like the voice of one crying in the wilderness. Just as hearing John's words didn't cause the transformation—only by an encounter with the Lord Himself was the transformation accomplished—so it is with you.

Yes, hear these messages. Hear them; meditate on them. Read My Word; meditate My Word, but know the transformation comes by My Spirit. Neglect not My Spirit and the foundations that have been laid in this place, says the Lord.

PT090925 – Sep 25, 2009 Anchors for Your Soul Concerning Fasting

I want to give you some anchors for your soul concerning fasting, to stabilize your boat in wind tossed seas.

Confusion, which is rooted in fear and is connected to the religious doctrine that has pushed out truths about living IN ME, is often a key battle when it comes to using the key of fasting, and it can be easily overcome in Me.

Should I? Should I not? Do I? Do I not? When? How? Why? These questions can all be settled by looking to Me. Remember, the enemy's tactic is to divide you from your fellowship with Me and to take you out of My peace where our communication runs free. Keep your mind fixed on Me and everything that is in Me. All that you need is in Me. You must choose to put your trust in Me and not in what you hear or sense by your senses, or see. You must make an active choice that this is part of your fellowship with Me and that together we can do anything.

I do not expect you to fast by your own strength. Fasting is not meant to be simply an act of your will; it is meant to be by My grace as you choose to fellowship with Me. I will carry you as you rely on Me.

Each time you feel the "squeeze" of your emotions, turn to Me. Our life is a partnership, and this includes fasting. Why would I exclude anything from our fellowship when that is what our life together is to be—a walk together for all eternity?

Many have been in fear of fasting and have not chosen this part to help them live more by that spirit within that is made pure and holy. Many have not yet turned to Me to allow Me into this part of their life so that My grace can operate freely on their behalf. The tumult in the mind and the confusion can be dealt with if you will use the keys that walk you into more of Me.

Tell Me of your love for Me and engage in a deeper fellowship with Me. This frees Me to draw near to you and opens doors to greater understanding of My love that you have yet to see. Every time you turn to Me, I am there with you. For as you draw near to Me, I am free to draw near to you in fellowship and intimacy.

You say you need a plan? I have your plan, and all I need is for you to allow Me to work on your behalf to remove those things that have kept you from receiving.

I hear some saying, "Oh, I can do all the other things, but this one thing is not for me. I am not able to hear Him, and I just don't have it in Me." So I say to you: You are My love and My joy, and I will help you grow stronger in Me and run deeper into the things of My Spirit that you want to see if you will make the choice to allow Me to help you.

My nature within you is what I work by, and as you allow it to come forth through your choices for Me, I can help you taste the taste of victory. Pray diligently in the language that flows from your spirit so that I may work My truth, My freedom, and My restoration plan into your life.

Offer yourself to Me on a regular basis and pray for My will to come forth in your life, praying in the supernatural language of tongues whereby you release Me to work My plan and My truths into your life. All I need is willingness on your behalf, and there is grace for this.

Allow Me in and I can accomplish My plan in you and strengthen you to walk deeper and deeper into everything you are and have in Me. I will move you forward into My plan and give you every detail you need as you move forward in Me.

PT090930 – Sep 30, 2009
A Time of Refreshing Is Upon You

A time of refreshing is upon you. Those of you who have labored when others wouldn't and those of you who kept persevering when others fell away and those of you who counted the prize as more valuable than your life, this very week, this coming conference, I am going to use you like I have not used you before. There will be opportunities for you to give from the abundance I have stored within you, but know this: You will not be diminished. In fact, this shall be a time of refreshing and a time of strength, whereas at the end of this conference you will be going, "How did I get stronger? Why am I not tired?"

It is because it is My refreshing. You are going to receive more than you give, says the Lord.

PT091004A – Oct 4, 2009
My Desire—That You Draw Close Enough

It's My desire for the heart's level to reach places of receiving that have not been received before, because there is a timetable and a schedule with this. For it is My desire that you draw close enough to Me that I might impart, like never before, in these meetings, says the Lord, says the Lord. He said that part twice.

PT091004B – Oct 4, 2009
Sometimes It Is Hard for Me to Reveal

You know where change is, where He said the heart doesn't doubt? I wish I could turn that switch on with my head, but I can't. [Meaning:] I can just decide to have it.

For until I can bring you to levels of understanding by My Spirit, sometimes it is hard for Me to reveal how much you are really going to do, or should I say, how big that it is.

PT091004C – Oct 4, 2009
I Am Being Released to Work More Thoroughly

I keep hearing: The things I have for them are totally available, more so than ever before, for I am being released to work more thoroughly and deeper than ever before. Therefore, these things are coming together, and not many of you are going to leave the same.

PT091004D – Oct 4, 2009
Not Only My Servant but My Slave

Who is it who comes to Me, comes to Me, comes to Me who wants all that I have? Who is this of you who is exempt from becoming not only My servant but My slave? Who is it of you who would arrive where you want to go and who will not pick this path up and walk in it?

For many, many before you have come this way and generally [have] been destroyed a long time before this time that you are sitting in—in what I have to say to you. Understand this: The many, many who went down a certain limb, and at the end of the limb, it was over, and still another, higher and on another limb, but I have waited out the generations, waited out the centuries for people to come and in their journey get close enough to Me that I might pour out upon them all that I am.

For you who are of strong character, hear this: For in these meetings, depending upon the strength of your character, you are going to find out all you need to walk out into everything I said you could do. And you will destroy the works of the enemy.

When I saw that, I saw strongholds of civilizations of people who needed a revival.

PT091004E – Oct 4, 2009
It Delights Him to Do Things for You

His desire is to reach in, change things, and do things—the things that make a difference to you.

For he who delights himself [in the Lord]—He wants you to know that it delights Him to do things for you and to grant to you those godly desires from your heart.

PT091004F – Oct 4, 2009
Discipline Yourselves and Learn How

The enemy has purposed to hide these things in religion, but I have made it so that you can go from where you are to where I am because you are the one who makes the decision to do so.

Did I not send to you the Teacher? Did I not make provisions that even when you don't know what you are doing, He does? And if you will follow Him, He will reveal Me, says the Lord. Therefore, be taught by the Spirit. Discipline yourselves and learn how to spend time in My Presence. Let Me work My mind in you and you will see, for you will emerge in a troubled time with victory.

PT091005 – Oct 5, 2009
You Will Be Free to Step Forward

He said: Many of you will be free to step forward into places that you have not been before. And the reason that you will be able to do that is because what was holding you back has been destroyed.

PT091007A – Oct 7, 2009
Soon and Very Soon

Soon and very soon, what is now doctrine and study and words shall be your very life.

PT091007B – Oct 7, 2009
Turn This Into a Glorious Time

As I use the authority that has been released here and channeled that I might grab it and administer it toward the future—for you set some things that will surely come to pass—you will see, because you sent Me out into the future. And there is a unity that has come together as one that is causing Me to be able to work the future as never before.

So hang on. The ride is going to be glorious. But would I say that you would be free from persecution? No, I cannot say that. There will be persecution, but you will meet that persecution from a foundation you have not walked in before. So rejoice and be exceedingly glad.

Find out [how] to pull yourself aside; refresh yourself in My Presence. Find out how to count it all joy when you see these things coming to pass, knowing that I will be returning soon. Turn this into a glorious time and you will be the answer people are looking for, and the harvest shall be great, says the Lord.

PT091007C – Oct 7, 2009
The Love of Money—Shed the Old Man

For the love of money being the root of all evil—this one is the one that is seldom defeated. Few make it past this place, but hear again, as you draw closer and closer to Me in your identification and shed your old man, [know] that you will also become closer and closer to that freedom [from the love of money]. For in this place, I stand with you tonight, says the Lord.

This place, He is definitely standing at the moment, meaning we are within reach of a place I don't think the Body of Christ has walked in, [for] some time. And if you finish the shedding [of] the greed and the holds that it has on you, you are going to be handling more than you can imagine.

PT091007D – Oct 7, 2009
Open Yourselves Up and Receive

Editor's Note: The following was before a prayer for those God has called to be gospel entrepreneurs.

Hundreds of hours of meditation, hundreds of hours of receiving and prayer and lining up something that would receive that I may transfer this, says the Lord. So open yourselves up and receive what I am doing for you.

PT091008A – Oct 8, 2009
He Is Looking for Ways In

Editor's Note: The following came during a time of prayer over prayer cloths.

Don't you know that He is always continually looking? He is looking for ways in not out. We don't have to be scared and run and be afraid of offense. He wants this more than you do.

So don't approach it like it is something that is not going to happen. It is going to happen.

The one reason a person can't believe it sometimes is because you don't know Him very well. But that doesn't even make Him mad. So, virtually, He is saying this: Come on. Come on. Why don't you let Me do this?

PT091008B – Oct 8, 2009
The Day of the Kings Is at Hand

The Body that we have been serving, which is His bride, will no longer carry the financial burden of ministry by way of tithes, offerings, sowing and reaping. It is a new day—the day of the “kings” is at hand. They are now being assigned the authority and provision to provide.

Think it not strange if the well of offerings dries up, for the bride will no longer bear the responsibility of providing for the Kingdom. It now shall rest upon the kings.

PT091009A – Oct 9, 2009
In Fellowship, You Will Find Out How

This grace is not of yourself, it is a gift of God. For what could you do to earn this? What could you do that I have already not done for you?

Hear Me: If you will fellowship with Me, and in fellowship, you will find out how—through the things I have given you—to yield yourself and yield yourself. And what I am will come forward because it is what you are. And you will see; you will not be fruitless nor barren in the harvest of these last days.

PT091009B – Oct 9, 2009

Receive All That I Have

Editor's Note: The following was said before prayer for healing.

Don't limit yourself to what I am moving on at [the] present, but open yourself up to receive all that I have, says the Lord.

PT091011 – Oct 11, 2009

The More Time You Spend With Me

By My Spirit, let Me pick you up into that place that I have provided for you. For this place is of an assurity [surety]. It is the place where everything can be brought and changed. For I will emphasize again, let Me, by My Spirit, pick you up into that place.

The more time that you spend with Me, the freer you will become in your journey from “can't” to “can.”

PT091018A – Oct 18, 2009

He Loves the Fellowship

He loves the fellowship of the praises or the worship of the people. There is a fellowship in it not only for you but also for Him.

PT091018B – Oct 18, 2009

The Call of the Spirit Is to Pray

The call of the Spirit is to pray. Men of old prayed and prayed and prayed, and I used them, but this place of prayer within the Church has not been in its rightful place for many, many generations.

It is for My purposes that I have given the language of the Spirit in prayer that I might continually move you forward in Me and that I might bring forth My plans and purposes in the earth. I have waited many generations to reestablish the place of prayer—by My Spirit—in My Church.

Many are at the brink of stepping over into new places in prayer that they have not yet walked in, and this must be to bring the work of My Spirit—through the fellowship of prayer—back into the place it once held in My Church. I must have My sons in their rightful place of fellowship with Me, through the language of My Spirit, to establish those things their hearts desire. The call of the Spirit is prayer.

Do not say you do not have the time. For the earnest heart, I will show you the time you have, and if need be, I will give you time by My own hand. The earnest heart will see these things.

The walk for those who would be mature is to put off the old ways so that you might put on the new man who you are. As your fellowship with My Spirit increases, you will find more and more that the new man truly is who you are. The call of the Spirit is to pray.

I summed up the new man when I said to put on My whole armor, for this is the fullness of your new man in Me. You are complete in Me, and there is nothing in Me that I have not given you. As you grow in the knowledge of this through your fellowship in prayer with My Spirit, you will live in the new man who you are.

I summed up the place of fellowship with Me that your new man has when I said that the new man, dressed in the armor of who you are in Me, was adorned in this life IN ME for partnership with My Spirit. This place of fellowship with Me is where the armor of My strength and might is to be put to use in partnership with My Spirit through prayer: praying with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints. It is through My Body that I establish My plans and purposes in this earth. Through your partnership with My Spirit in prayer, I am released to establish My Kingdom on behalf of My sons.

I am bringing those who are obeying Me into places of deeper fellowship with My Spirit so that My Kingdom can be released through prayer for all saints. I know where the enemy is working against my saints, and I can stop him every time I find sons who will respond to the call to pray.

Your life in Me is one of fellowship with My Spirit, and I must have sons who will walk in My strength and My might so that My plans are established in this earth. My plans are established through the partnership of My sons with My Spirit—there is no other way. The call is for fellowship with My Spirit. The call is to pray.

This outpouring is dependent on My sons taking their place in Me and walking in the fullness of that spirit within them. This outpouring is dependent on My sons taking their place in fellowship with My Spirit. There is no other way. The mature son is a praying son who is attentive to the voice of My Spirit. The mature son is a praying son whom I can call upon, in partnership with My Spirit, to establish My truth in any situation I bring him into through the operation of prayer.

I am calling for an increase of prayer. I am calling for an increase of fellowship. I am calling for more of who you are in Me. As you give more of your life to Me through fellowship with My Spirit, I am allowed to bring increase to you and increase to My plan in this earth.

It is a call for My sons to rise up in My strength and My might through fellowship with My Spirit so that I might bring you forward into who you are in Me and that this world might see we are one.

PT091025 – Oct 25, 2009
Be Diligent to Prepare Yourself

You are fast coming to places where you have not walked before, so be diligent to prepare yourself and receive that which I am offering, and give yourself to Me that I might work My mortification in you. For great things lie ahead, but you must be ready, says the Lord.

He's taking some major steps towards our outpouring. So just know if you feel Him tracking you down more frequently and working in your conscience [about] being persistent towards prayer, you can know the reason why: Because you let Him in another step.

PT091027 – Oct 27, 2009
Healing—It Abounds From Me

Healing is abundant—it abounds from Me, but healing is not seen as abundant in the earth because My truth has not been understood to be TRUTH. Healing is unconditional, for the way of the Kingdom is to heal. All provision has been made and the grace has come, through My Son, for all to be made whole.

It has been difficult for the natural mind of man to understand My mercy and My grace, for these things are spiritually understood. My Church, as a whole, has not understood the way into spiritual understanding, and this way is by the tutoring of the spiritual mind by My Spirit through the supernatural language made available to all who will receive it.

Those who have chosen the path of tutoring by My Spirit are entering into the understanding of truth that will unlock many doors. The battles have been hard fought to reach into the understanding of these truths, but My Spirit has been ushering you in through the fellowship that you have found to be key. I am pleased.

Know: Your Father Loves You

Fathering is as natural to Me as natural can be, because that is who I am—your Father. The problem is, being fathered by Me and receiving fathering from Me does not come natural to the wounded soul that has been deprived of the pure fathering that is found in Me. There has been a degree of fathering through natural fathers, but the pureness of fathering that comes from Me has been lacking.

I am restoring fathering to the Church, and that is only done by My family receiving the pure fathering that comes from Me. I am teaching the way into the pure through the fellowship of My Spirit. I AM your eternal Father.

I am pointing My children to Me—to the Father. I am teaching many by My Spirit to look to Me and all that I have put in place for them through My Son.

You are My sons. Your relationship with Me is as a son to a Father. I do not hold you at arm's length; I daily invite you into the open arms of My grace and My love. As you understand the grace in My love's forgiveness, you will understand the pure standing you have in My love.

Many think I draw a line in My love that is based on their strengths and weaknesses, and they see this line moving them closer to Me in their strengths and moving them farther away from My love in their weaknesses. But this is not how I am. I give you My love, and the fullness of My love, when you are weak and when you are strong.

My Church has not understood the healing that is in My love. It is unconditional to young and old alike. When you are weak in your weaknesses, My healing is as much yours as when you are strong in My strengths, for what I have done for you through My Son's stripes is DONE.

I am inviting My family into the knowledge of My love and My grace where the pureness of My love is known as a wide open embrace.

Know: Your Father loves you. And know: This love is unchanging and does not originate in you. Love is who I am. My love is extended to you, and I will NOT pull back My hand.

I reach for you to come. Come into the knowledge of who I am through the fellowship of My Spirit and see things from where I stand.

PT091101A – Nov 1, 2009
Know and Understand the Moving of the Spirit

He loves it when He is free to move through the power of His Holy Spirit, and He loves it when people are appreciative and respect the movings of the Spirit—we're not talking in the area of children—and that's what He said.

We're not talking in the areas of a child crying or something like this. A lot of people can't minister during a time like that because it upsets them or sets them off. We're not talking about that kind of lack of respect; [we're talking about] the difference between people who are indifferent to it [the movings of the Spirit] and people who yield themselves over and get involved in it and what He is doing.

For in involving yourselves, you'll become accustomed to another level of His moving, and this is necessary, for in the days to come, there will be a need, He said—a real ministry, a real need, for people who know and understand the moving of the Spirit as He increases in power and operation daily in that direction.

So something is coming. I saw the city. I just saw the city and an overshadowing of it with the glory of God. And it was so strong that things were happening in so many places and so fast that people were just looking for places and people that could tell them and teach them [as they question:] "What's happening? What's happening? What's happening?"—and [with] no small amazement—"What's happening? What's happening?"

For darkness is on the increase. Have I not said in times past the things that would come? For darkness is also on the increase, but so is My light. So rise up and be strong, for there will be My strongholds that I will put in places [so] that I will take root, and My light will be manifest in that place instead of their darkness.

And, oh, on the world's scene, all of these forces will be heading towards each other, and My plan is to prevail, says the Lord, and take a great, great harvest out of the adversity in these last days.

PT091101B – Nov 1, 2009
Lay Hold on These Tools

People are bewildered. They are talking with each other and have not seen a time quite like this—not in many, many years. And what will make it different is: There is no time that such adversity and trials had hit since My ability has increased that voices might be heard instantly around the world, in a moment of time.

The devil is using these tools. Move forward. Lay hold on these tools and magnify Me and My Word, for you will see that when you begin to operate in all that I have and all that I am, think you not that My power will go to different places in the world with the same velocity and the same volume as the present setting that you are involved in when My glory pours out in volumes and volumes and volumes? says the Lord.

PT091101C – Nov 1, 2009
It Is Sooner Than You Think

Since the time that these things have been prophesied, many of you are thinking, “Oh, I don’t know if I will see this. I am getting old.”

Well know this: It is sooner than you think.

PT091101D – Nov 1, 2009
Hold Steady to Your Course

For as at first, the instruction that He said that He gave me was very hard to follow and to take because it seemed like I just stepped out of the harvest all of a sudden. So for sure, knowing what I heard, I obeyed Him and came here like He instructed me to do, so I could follow through with the present instructions here.

Well, the devil has increased his onslaught, but this one doesn’t appear to be as much him as sometimes in the past when he would come through and cause havoc. But this time he is operating a little more underground but with a little more wisdom that comes from the higher places that they reign from.

So don’t think it unusual when you see things happen that there doesn’t seem to be any reason for. Just hold steady to your course, and know this, that one day you will not be able to get close to even this place, says the Lord.

PT091101E – Nov 1, 2009
Many Will Accomplish in a Short Time

This indeed will be multiplied many times by the sowers who will be overtaking the reapers, so hang on, for to your joy, many will accomplish in a short time because you took the time to take the long time and establish this foundation. So rejoice and be exceedingly glad, for these are exciting days ahead.

PT091101F – Nov 1, 2009
As a Father With His Children

As a Father with His children, My desire is to pull you in close to Myself and do those things for you that can be done no other way. For many of [you], your hunger has left the hunger for worldly things and has come across the line, says the Lord, for you said your life is not your own.

So you are releasing Me to do those things for you that any good father would do. For would I give you those things in the place of what I have prepared for you as My Body? No.

PT091101G – Nov 1, 2009
Increase Manifests Itself in Every Facet

Don't you know when you let Me bring increase that the increase manifests itself in every facet?

PT091101H – Nov 1, 2009
Whole Systems Will Change

So many of you have had the desire to be used but couldn't see how it was possible under the present systems of religion. But you will say, when you step forward, "I didn't know that it was understandings I had to attain to upon my foundation." And you will marvel and say, "Why couldn't I see these things before?" And you will say, louder than ever, "For the operating in these things is His grace."

For My moves will reach higher in the world's systems, for you wouldn't understand the history of past, for there is no explaining that could cause you to understand things that I moved in and the impossibility of them. For had you known them, then you would know that some of the places I am going to bring My power is to high places. And whole systems will change. When people get free and free indeed, they'll evangelize their surroundings, no matter what they consist of—the prison systems, the educational systems.

For as My power, which cannot be denied, climbs higher and higher in My glory, higher will it affect the people in charge, and they also will pick up and say, "How can this be anything but God?" Which will come to pass [that] which I said to you in the mandate I gave you of doctrine and truth and sanity of mind and soundness and miracles so profound that even the Einstein's of the world will have to say it had to be God.

So know you not, you touched My foundation, you therefore touched My building. You therefore touched Me, and nothing shall be impossible to you.

PT091101I – Nov 1, 2009
Something Tangible Has Arrived

Something has been deposited, or is "being" deposited, I should say, that has become tangible substance in the faith we are saying our revival is made out of. So something tangible has arrived.

In the days to come, when this gains a momentum, you are really going to be super glad for your foundation and the grounding that you have—super glad.

We're going to see some unusual things, but hang on, hang on. Some of you are going to become quite, quite wealthy in time for it to do some good.

It won't have you, you will have it.

What He wanted me to culminate that with was that this time, which is very seldom that that is beat—the love of money being the root of all evil and the merchandising—very few times [is that beat], but this time, this time it looks like He was saying that the level that it overturned most, that will not happen this time to this bunch.

PT091112 – Nov 12, 2009
Continue In the Press

I am inviting people into My Presence in new ways. Some who are hearing the invitation to come have not experienced My Presence to any degree, but the way has been paved through prayer, and the invitation they are receiving is accompanied by much grace.

Because there have been those who have pushed their way into My Presence through diligence and tenacity by My grace, I am able to come by their authority to offer this grace to access My Presence to many who have been unable to do so before. Walls have come down, and strongholds have been breached, and no more are they isolated from Me and the grace that is in My Presence.

A door has been opened, and a place has been gained by those who have pressed in and gone before them. This grace is now extended, and those who have been only able to “peek” into the goodness of My Presence and My healing embrace will begin to enter in.

The heart of the Father is always “Come,” yet the enemy has used many weaknesses and scars to effectively keep these children at a distance, but no more. Those who are hearing the invitation to come will see before them a new door, and this door to My Presence is held open.

The enemy uses the scars of wrong perceptions to keep My children at a distance from Me, and many have not known of My embrace, but this kind of love is available to all. I want the pleasure of holding each child very near. It is a consummate pleasure to pour My healing love on the wounds and the scars that the enemy uses to bring his destruction and push My children away from the depths of My love.

In the embrace of My Presence, there is healing, and many are about to enter into places in My love that will bring wave after wave of My peace and My healing. And this must be on this path of the fullness that is in Me, for healing is part of the riches of the inheritance that is in Me.

When the push forward is a press, know that often the forward progress is a door for others to gain entrance into things their hearts have cried for but have not yet attained. Continue in the press, for the authority that is gained reaches beyond your borders to many. Much of the victory that lies ahead is being entered into. Stay on course in the press.

Get Ready to Adapt

Because of the mission we are on, things will not be the same as what you have seen in your past, but they will change. Things will be different. And get ready to adapt, because you will be in situations that you never dreamed you'd be in. You'll see things that you didn't know that you'd ever see.

So be strong and know that in that time, you will a key player—meaning, to every single one of you. So stay on the path because what you know is fast becoming very, very important as we press in onto what He has for us.

PT091115B – Nov 15, 2009
Practice Hearing My Voice

Tune in and listen. Practice hearing My voice. Do those things necessary to get quiet to hear because I am ready to say things that have not been said in a considerable amount of time, says the Lord.

PT091115C – Nov 15, 2009
I Will Use Your Experiences

Many will inquire and many will question, “How can these things be?” But you'll answer; many of you will have testimonies. You'll understand the path you have been over, and you can say, “Sit down and let me talk with you.”

You'll marvel at how people will open their hearts and let Me in. It will be a great harvest in that day that many, many have believed for, for a long time.

So I will use your experiences, both approaching this great victory and while you are in it, says the Lord.

PT091115D – Nov 15, 2009
Things That Bring Permanent Change

For many who started out hungry, if they'd have continued to feed their hunger, then their hunger would have increased. For after you receive a little, you want more, and after more, you want more. But many stopped, for the obstacles became greater than the time you were putting in with Me, says the Lord. Therefore, things took precedence—your life, career, power that is in money.

Many who make a New Year's resolution make it because it's the beginning of something. They find strength in beginnings when they purpose their life, but most are overtaken by the problems again and end up with no victory. For the big step forward is when you begin to deal with that thing that's in you that's weak that never lets you finish something you start; find out how to deal with that—and that would be by using your discipline to do the things that bring permanent change to your walk.

Did I not say that edification is one of those things? Can you not build yourself up on your most holy faith, praying? For these changes that take place, they will cause you to graduate from the places that have always stopped you.

But who has enough revelation? Who is stubborn enough to stay in for the change? For not many have made it this far, but I have been able to change enough and answer enough of the heart's cry to reveal My Word like I had not been able to reveal it for a long time. Therefore, rejoice, because that key had to be unlocked for two reasons: One, to sustain, and the other, for an outpouring of glory not seen in the early Church.

Therefore, the revelation we are receiving now, don't you know that is going to sustain us through the worst and sustain everybody that we teach [and] that didn't take another two thousand years to catch on?

These Are the Things Revival Is Made Of

[Concerning] My visit to Azusa Street: This man waited and waited, and he gave Me what I needed to step one step forward. But for lack of maturity, what was received was ran with and then taken apart. And My miracle crusades come out of that move in times past, when men would take their gifts and go on the road, and it sparked interest. But how can anything remain when those who carry it do not change?

Hear what the Spirit would say on the most important things I am doing in you now, [which] is maturing you towards the plan that I have for Tulsa. Maturing you, not only the faith but the strength to hold your ground, no matter what, for these are the things revival is made out of, says the Lord.

My Life in You Is the Greatest Treasure Ever

There is grace to walk in what you want to walk in, and it is not a difficult thing—it is easy. It is just a matter of keeping your mind and heart fixed on Me and refusing anything that comes that would try to move you out of My love, My mercy, and My peace.

My mind operates in the realms of love, mercy, and peace. Stay in these realms. Refuse the thoughts about yourself and about others that do not agree with My love, My mercy and My peace. Let My truth guide your every move. Stay in truth. Stay in peace.

The enemy is on assignment to divide, for in unity and peace is all strength, and these cannot be walked in outside of My love. The enemy wants to come and prey on those whose minds stay not fixed on Me but on themselves. There is no peace when the fight is about maintaining one's own life. I have laid out the principle to keep your mind on the truth of My Word, and nothing outside of My truth and My love is part of My mind. To operate in My mind is to know Me.

Many are knowing Me to much greater degrees and walking in greater and greater levels of peace. The enemy is coming to try this peace, and he is using the weaknesses of the flesh in those whose thoughts are fixed on themselves and not on Me. In this they are devourable, for they have not cast the whole of their care on Me. Instead, they have taken on the care of their life and things pertaining to it as their own care, and they are casting the care of their life onto the arms of their own strength, and in this there is no peace. And they wonder why there is turmoil about them.

It is because I am their Peace, and they have not allowed Me to be their peace or their strength. They still hold onto the cares of how to take care of their own life and the issues that befall them, and they fix things in their own strength and their own reasoning and forego the way of the Spirit, instead bringing appeasement to the flesh and its weaknesses. The result is a lack of peace, and they wonder why they don't see more of Me in their life. I do all I am allowed to do according to their choices for Me or their choices for their own comfort.

Fear is the grand master behind all of this, and the conquering of the fears that torment is the maturing of the spirit within. I have introduced the key of private worship to draw My children into that place in Me where My love is free to operate and dispel fears by the saturation of My Presence of Truth and Love. I have given the key of fasting to bring the spirit within forward so the strength will be available to see those things of bondage that are in the old man that is to be put off.

I would like to warn My children of the great darkness that is at work pulling many away through lies mixed with some truths. The enemy's plan is to pull as many as possible into the camp of half-truths to have an army of resistance against the outpouring to come. Those in fear will have great difficulty in the pressures of this resistance. Fear must be overcome to walk in the peace that is in My nature and to prevail in the days to come.

The enemy has been lining up circumstances to make the days ahead a challenge to live in for those whose lives are filled with fear and torment. He has no mercy, and his plan is destruction. My plan is the destruction of the ways of the old man and the rising up of the fullness of the stature of the nature within so that My glory shall be seen in all the earth.

I must have a people who will not let up in this narrowing path that I lead on. As the path gets narrower, the pressure against the emotions will become much greater if the old man is not put off. Put off the old man and put on the new by doing all the things you have been taught to do. The path is narrowing to a marked degree, and many will be tempted to "walk in place" on the place in the path they have come to and not move forward into the narrowing. This must not be.

Rely much on the fellowship with My Spirit so that He may lead you forth. Resist not His leading and His promptings and do those things your conscience knows to do. Settle for nothing less than all of the fullness of My glory within you. I have given you all you need that you might have all the fullness that is in Me. I am calling forth the volunteers who will give their all to Me and nothing less. As you give your all to Me, I am free to give My all to you, and nothing less.

Count the cost of the treasure that is before you, and that would be Me. My life in you is the greatest treasure ever, and many are they who will want the treasure you have laid down your life for. Your life is not your own; it is Mine, and I am looking for those who will surrender their life to the narrowing that lies ahead so My love might be seen within you throughout this earth. I have a people who have been following My Spirit, and now I am calling out of this people those who will volunteer for more of the life that is in Me through the close fellowship of My Spirit. The gates to the more narrow way are open. Let Me lead you through them one-by-one.

Now You Know Why My Servant Prayed

So you thought My mind was easily comprehended by man? Now you know why My servant prayed that I would give you a spirit of wisdom and understanding. That I would give you, that I would open the eyes of your understanding, for truly these things are spiritually discerned, then revealed to your natural mind.

But know this: As you yield yourselves to the Teacher I have sent and meditate upon these truths of My Word, you shall walk as the children I have ordained for this generation.

This Is the Generation Who Will Keep My Word

The Church will again be a distribution center as it was in the beginning. For this to happen, the Body will be of one heart and one soul, and they will no longer see anything as their own, but all is the Lord's.

The early Church was like Adam. It heard the Word of the Lord but did not fully keep it. The enemy penetrated and took over the garden. Some stood and warned, some cried out, but it fell on deaf ears, and so their words fell to the ground. In generations, it sprouted again, but the enemy came quickly and stole it. But even the ground is Mine, and this is the season for the seed of their words to sprout, and this time it will grow, it will blossom, and it will bear fruit. And My Body, My Church, will know the hope of My calling. You have been invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb, and you will make yourself ready.

I will restore to My Body what religion has stolen; the ruined places will be rebuilt. Everything I received from the Father and gave My Body for its equipping and growth will once again be established, and it will stand strong in Me in the power of My might. For I have received dominion which shall not pass away and a Kingdom that will not be destroyed. And My Church will be clothed in My glory and My power [in order] for My Kingdom to be established throughout this earth. And the gates of hell will not prevail; it will assault, but it will be crushed.

My Church will no longer be lovers of money building little kingdoms for themselves. For My Church, My bride is clothed in truth and righteousness, prepared and ready to share the Gospel of peace, wherever their feet step, in faith that extinguishes the burning missiles the enemy shoots and in the beauty of salvation and My Word. And being watchful, having one heart and one soul, it keeps all the members in one bond with prayer and supplication. Liken this to your skin that holds all the body parts in their place to function according to My design.

This is the generation who will keep My Word, and it will be to you as the treasure of your heart. Through your obedience, it will give light to the blind that they may see. It will open the ears of the deaf that they may hear. It will release prisoners from their captivity, and it will bring life to the dead. And My Kingdom will be established, and all will proclaim, “The Lord God Omnipotent reigns!”

A Time of Explosion

It really is a time of “explosion.” Many are right at the brink of understanding what have been mysteries to the soul. As the forward progress continues, understandings that are at this time glimpses of light will explode in the understanding, and forward we will go into an outpouring like this world has never known.

The “identity crisis,” which has been unparalleled, is at a crossroads, and this time, the right path into all the fullness in Me will be chosen, for the pureness of My ways has been taught by My Spirit, and the understanding of this life in Me is becoming sure, pure, and strong in the manner I have desired for many, many generations.

Those hungry for the soundness of unshakeable truth are leaving the structures of religion, and a shaking of the “man-made” is beginning to take place in a much greater measure. Expect to see the hungry come, and expect some to come back who were shaken off the foundation of soundness that My hands have built. Begin to expect these changes to take place in the midst of other changes I am bringing.

The word is going to begin to increase that “Truth is over here!” and people will come. Many that come will be hand-led by My Spirit, and great will be the peace that will accompany them to this place. Healing will be in this peace.

I have spoken of an emerging from hiddenness. Expect the manifestation of this, for the time has come according to the place on this path into Me that you have come to. I am going to send stewards to sit in the midst of you. Some will be known, some will be unknown, but I know each one. As they come, treat each one as you treat any other son—allow them to take their place in the structure of family I am building.

Allow them to come. Turn none away that I send. Some will be very polished by the hands of My Spirit and will know the Refiner’s fire. Others will come whose lives are quite ragged around the edges, but their hearts have been proven to be Mine. I am gathering sons to come.

Things are shifting. Things are changing within lives. Be ready for what is to come.

I Have Already Made This Available

When I set Myself to do something, you yield yourself to Me, because I have already made this available. So receive, therefore; yield yourself to Me.

I Ask Much of You

Editor’s Note: The following was spoken before Communion was received.

Hear these things, for the path you are walking down gets narrower and narrower. And it is no small thing that I ask much of you, for you are asking much of Me. Therefore, hear what the Spirit would say and offer yourself up as a living sacrifice.

Make up your mind to receive strength. This is My body which was broken for you. As oft as you do these things, do so in remembrance of Me. And this is My blood that was shed for you. As oft as you drink, you do so in remembrance of Me.

PT091220C – Dec 20, 2009
Communion Is Not Just Motions You Go Through

Communion is not just motions that you go through. Examine yourself; unite yourself with the rest of My Body, for was it not My blood that united you one with Me?

Therefore, take these things not lightly. Examine yourselves and put your foot on this path and see that I am glorious, says the Lord.
