

Prophecies Received at The Family Prayer Center

PT090412 – Apr 12, 2009

It Is My Desire to Move

I will remind you that when I through words build people's faith, that at times they attain to places of grace—that is to say, something I provided for them that is unearnable—therefore, they are open to receive at that minute. And it is My desire at that minute to move because I want to administer My grace and all things that are good, all that I can, says the Lord.