A Season of Enlightenment

For those who are pressing into Me and continuing to endure, it is a season of enlightenment, where the eyes of the understanding are being enlightened as never before. The mysteries are being prayed out and they shall no longer be called mysteries, instead the mysteries become revelation. Many are experiencing this already and can say that revelation is coming faster, but this is because the seasons of endurance have their rewards.

Many of the enduring ones came close to wearing out but instead chose to persist in the endurance I asked of them, and these choices kept putting them into a higher walk with Me, with the flesh being more in submission each step of the way.

The results of this season will bring the revival you have desired; the many months and years of the press of the flesh have their reward.

Endurance is a requirement in a walk with Me and can at times seem to be nothing but long seasons of press, press, press; yet, the results will cause you to say, "If I had known it would be like this." I have told you the rewards are worth it and the joy set before you is worth it.

Weeping does endure for a night, but the joy of the morning is sweet in itself.
