Be Unstoppable

You are in a life or death war and there is grace for all to survive. You are fighting to possess the LIFE of Christ and His attributes and His character. As these become who you are in your daily walk, the authority you have been given will be on exhibit; it will be on display to the world.

There is an evil force on assignment to stop each one of you, but there is grace not to fail. All that you need, I have given to you, and every key you have been taught is pertinent to the path you are on.

It is a path of victory; it is a path of grace, for it is all done in My strength. You can rule and reign in every situation that comes against you as you forge forward in Me. You must remember that greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world. I have given you authority over all the power of the enemy that nothing by any means shall harm you. I have given you the keys to live and abide in this place.

Love will be a turning point in this journey. As you grow in your knowledge of My love, you will put on more of that nature—your authority dwells in the nature of Love, for that is who I am.

The key is to continue without looking back or letting up on this path that's been given to you. Pray much, worship much, meditate much, and heed the instructions on fasting. It will take you past everything that does not believe who I have made you to be.

When you know who you are in Me and in My family, your walk will be as a mighty, mighty force against the enemy's forces, and you will prevail.

It is not the time to wait and see what happens and what the enemy will bring. It is a time to act on all that has been spoken, on all you know to do, and forge ahead in this hour.

I have said it is the hour of division—the division of soul and spirit—and it is. It is of prime importance to be unstoppable on this path of putting away the soulish nature, the nature of the flesh, and putting on the nature of My Son, which is the nature of your new man.

You can prevail against all the enemy brings, and you can come through the storms rejoicing. You can walk as an army in triumph—you can.

You will win every situation you face as you heed your instructions. Do the things you have learned and succeed. There is grace in My family to succeed.
