

Prophecies Received at The Family Prayer Center

PT090708 – Jul 8, 2009
The School of My Spirit

Do you remember the school of the prophets spoken of in My Word? I have My school of prophets for today, and it is the school of My Spirit. It is the development of the new nature and the ear for My voice within that nature.

The school of My Spirit is the way I desire to teach all of My children, no matter My plan for them. It is in this training that communication lines are opened and hearts are changed and lives restored. It is through this school that I can pour forth My truth through My Spirit of truth.

Each call has individuals within that call, and what one is called to, another is not. As diverse as My people are, so are the diversities of My calls, yet men have attempted to train according to their understanding, and even their traditions, and this is not My best.

My best is for each individual to devote their time to earnest fellowship with Me. My best is for the hearts of each one to hear and follow Me. My best is for hearts to be trained in the maturation of their spirit and the mortification of those things outside of My nature. My best is true devotion to Me through the work of My grace so that My heart beats as one with each one who walks with Me.

My Son was truly devoted to Me. He considered not His life as His own. He considered Himself in this world, but He knew from whence He came. This is the walk of the spirit that is available to all who offer themselves to My Spirit of grace and truth. I am the God of all grace and as each one places himself in My hands through the process of fellowship, My grace is free to come, and I can shape and mold each heart into a pure vessel for My use.

I have been training vessels for My use in the school of My Spirit, and not all will be pleased at the work of My hands in these vessels, for it will challenge the work that has been of their hands and not Mine. Even so, My handiwork will prevail.

Those who are hungry, who have been trained in ways other than My best, will hunger for this place in Me of true fellowship and will come to be trained in seasons of intensity with Me. They will be hungry to know how to walk in the same paths and will come to find for themselves what this school of My Spirit is, and their lives will be changed.

It makes no difference what others say if it does not agree with Me. You are free to keep your focus on Me. The world is going to see My plan of diversity, for there are similar calls and similarities within these calls, but there are many diversities within each call. And this must be allowed to be, for I must have the individuality within My Body to make My Body complete. The diversities of joints and ligaments and parts within My Body must be for My Body to BE the fullness that is in Me.

Many may frown at the diversities they see, but I will also use this [revealing of diversities] to bring forth the hungers for more and more of Me and to enable My Body to see Me, helping it be complete. There is fullness to My glory and part of this has to do with the diversity that is within Me. In Me is all the fullness, and this is what I am bringing forth to be seen.