Be Bold! Be Changed!

The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth. The enemy comes—always to steal the Word. Your faith is the substance of things hoped for; it is all the evidence you need of those things you cannot yet see. Be established in the place called “Done.” Be established in the Word of righteousness—it is the only truth.

My Word is truth. The entirety of My Word is truth. You do not wrestle in your circumstances, nor in your thoughts or feelings about circumstances around you. This is the realm of flesh and blood—the natural realm—and your war is not against the natural realm in which there is flesh and blood. All of your wrestling is against the darkness. Your wrestling is against the realm of darkness that is against the light within you. Your wrestling is not against the emotions you deal with and the thoughts that are in conflict with My truth. The wrestling is against the enemy and his doctrine that he works to establish in this earth. Have I not said to speak to the mountains? These mountains are the works of darkness against My truth. My Word is light and life and power and will transform you and will overcome the powers of darkness, for light overcomes all darkness.

I bring your attention to My Word. I bring your attention to the truth. The enemy comes to steal the Word. My people differ from the kingdom of darkness for My people are filled with My life and My truth. How much truth they are filled with is by their choosing. How much strength they walk in is by the same choice process. Nevertheless, the enemy comes to steal this Word, and then he comes to tell you that My Word is not truth. My Word is pure. My Word is truth. I am not a man that I would lie; there is only truth in Me, for I am the Truth.

In this war you are engaged in, you have one weapon that will stand the test, and that is My Word. Sing to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs and be filled with My Spirit. Immerse yourself in the worship of the One who is truth and lavish your love on Me for the riches of My truth. It is My truth that sustains you, for it is your bedrock. It is the foundation that is unshakeable. It is the foundation that endures.

You must be very mindful that your enemy comes to shake you so that you let go of My truth and fall for his lies. He comes to steal the Word. If the Word is the bread you eat and the life that fills you, you will not be shaken. As you continue to fill yourself with My Word, you will be conformed to that which fills you. You will walk in the truth of who you are and nothing can stand before truth.

I have come that all might have life and that more abundantly. I have come to fill all those who will be filled with the very fullness of My fullness, which is My truth. I am the God of all truth and every part of My nature is truth. When the blind see and the lame walk, it is because it is My truth. It is the truth of My Word and the truth of My nature—they are intertwined. To walk in My fullness is to walk in My truth. It is to walk in the understanding of your righteousness and to live in the grace of My Spirit. To walk in My fullness is to understand the fellowship of My Spirit that you have been called to.

How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed of the devil, for God was with Him. This is the fullness you are called to. In this fullness is the full partnership of My sons with My Spirit. His Presence with you is close and permanent. It is constant. Nothing is held back, all has been given to you. Now you are closer than you have ever been to walking in this fullness. But a war must be fought, for the enemy will not go softly.

Do not wait. Do not wait. Do not wait for the appearance of the enemy's forces as the signal to go to war. As the Lord of Armies, My command is: "Go!" As the Lord Victorious, My command is: "Go!" Go into the land of My glory. Go into the land of My fullness. Go into the land of who you are. Go forth and take no captives. Leave all evidence of the enemy behind you.

If the enemy says you need to fear, take My Word and decree who you are in that spirit that has no fear. If the enemy says you are not able, take My Word and speak the truth of your ability in Me—your ability to do all things in Me. If the enemy says there are no resources, take My Word and defy the lies, for your place by grace is abundance. If the enemy says there is no hope, announce your standing in the God of all hope. Announce to hopelessness that with your God nothing is hopeless and all things are possible.

Your thoughts must agree with My thoughts. If a thought is in opposition to My mind and My ways, overcome the enemy's lies with truth—My Word is truth. Be established in My truth. My apostles have taught that you are who My Word says you are. My apostles of faith taught that you can have what My Word says you have. It is time to embrace these truths again as if they were new treasures. Let the excitement of "new" capture your heart with these truths. You ARE who My Word says you are and you CAN do all that you are called to do by My Spirit. It is time to walk in these truths.

My Spirit waits to bring forth My Kingdom. He waits to bring forth My will wherever He finds a partnering son to work with. Learn to yield even more to My Spirit. Learn to yield even more to your identity in My Word. You are new. You are light. You are greater than he that is in the world. You are righteous. You are free. You are healed. You are prosperous.

You are joint heirs with the One who sits at the right hand of God, who made an open show of the enemy.

Be bold to speak My truth. Be bold to say who you are. Be bold to say what you have. Be bold to say whose you are. Be bold to say the Word. Be bold! Be changed! Be transformed—the door to My fullness is open.
