

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

PT090722A – Jul 22, 2009
I Will Share With You My Heart

Why is it that My children fail to appreciate spending time listening to Me? Why is it that they fail to appreciate the value of My spoken word, of Me speaking to them a present hour word? Don't they realize the value that I place on My ability to communicate with them? Don't they realize the extent to which I have gone to make this available to My children? The limits that I was willing to go to in order to make available to My children the ability to hear Me?

Do you think that I don't value this? Do you think it is insignificant, not worth your time, to pursue what I would have to say to you?

In the future, develop a habit of practicing to hear Me and expect to hear Me—don't expect not to. Consider it a rare thing if I don't want to speak to you. Consider it a rare thing if I am not standing here waiting to speak to you.

How rich it is to be able to communicate with My children. Consider the centuries that passed when all I could do before the Cross is manifest Myself to certain individuals. That was all that was available. And now, after the Cross, the avenue has been established, and so few take the time to take advantage of what I have made available through the Blood of My Son for My children to hear Me, to fellowship with Me.

This is not meant to be condemnation. It is just a sense of disappointment because not more care enough to sit at My feet and listen to Me. I am not condemning; I am just sharing with you how I feel about it. If you will sit at My feet, I will speak to you, and I will share with you My heart.