As Far As I Am Concerned—It Is Unconditional

Editor's Note: This prophecy is the reference point of the prophecy following, titled "What Does Unconditional Mean to Me?"

It is no ordeal to Me to heal you, says the Lord. I already did that. It is no problem for Me to give to you that which I have already done. I do not make it hard; people make it hard and the enemy makes it hard.

But for you who will walk in My grace and understand how I have provided these things for you, it is unconditional as far as I am concerned. But it must be approached by faith and by what I have done for you.

What Does Unconditional Mean to Me?

What does "unconditional" mean to Me? It means that you can come and lie back in the arms of Love and rest and receive. It means you must lay all of your performance—good and bad—at the foot of the Cross where those things of the Law [performance] were made whole and complete. It means that Love is merciful indeed, and Love has only the vision of the truth of who you are now in Me.

You are whole and complete in Christ Jesus. You are righteous and you are holy. You are alive in Christ. Your old man that was not righteous, nor was it holy, has died, and you are brand new.

It is the love of God that never, ever fails and your Creator and your Redeemer exhibited this love when He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed of the devil, for God was with Him.

The love of the Father was on display in the image of the Son when it was made known that all who call upon the Lord shall be saved.

The love of the Father, as expressed in the Son, was explicitly revealed when all who came believing received of My good ways and went away whole. This goodness, this dramatic display of My love will be openly displayed in the revival that many have longed for, spoken of, and rehearsed among themselves. This same love that was evident through My Son has not changed—it is the same today.

The Father's love is the love that is the same yesterday, today, and forever. This love cannot be earned. It is only to be received, for it is free and limitless—without limits.

This love heals. This love restores. This love cleanses. This love delivers. This love speaks. This love reaches beyond the depths of every fault, every flaw, every frailty and weakness, and beyond the sins that are hidden from the eyes of men and says, “Come. Come. All is provided. Healing is free—it has been paid for. Come, freely receive.”
