The Call of My Spirit

“We are contending for revival” is the cry throughout My Body. The understanding of this is to be that this revival is a revival that comes from the place of the walk of the believer with Me. Out of the relationship that you have with Me, comes revival. Out of the understanding of who you are in Me, comes revival. Freedom from the prisons of tradition and doctrines of men is the place where revival walks. Out of the understanding that the Old Covenant is a shadow of the New, comes revival. The revival is not a dream to be made real; it is a place of relationship with Me.

The revival is a place in Me, in you, and the revival I seek is the maturing into a full man as My Body. It is not a thing on the horizon that you look for; it is a place born out of fellowship with Me. Press into the place of more of Me and less of you so that all the wonders of Christ in you will be a part of your daily walk in Me. It is a time to put aside childish things and pursue Me. This is the call of My Spirit to those who are hearing and pursuing Me.
