I Am the Everlasting Love

It is often said, “I’d do anything,” or “I’d do almost anything for my children.” For such is the love of a parent for his children. And as the Father of spirits, I have done everything for My children. None of it was asked for; none of it was earned. It was all provided for on the basis of My love. I have provided a place for each child who comes into this family by his choice, as if he alone was the only one ever to exist.

All of My love I give to each one, and of this love there is no end. I give each one full inheritance, and I give each one My undivided attention. I am earnestly attentive to even the slightest whisper in the heart. I see all things and know all things and I am merciful even when mercy seems not to fit, for I know every thought and the intent of every heart. My mercies fail not.

I love each child as if he were My first, My last, or My middle child; there is no preference with Me. All are loved with an uncompromising love that is faithful each and every day. The faithfulness of My love never changes. The sincerity of My love remains the same. Who I was yesterday is who I am today and who I will be for all eternity. There is no changing with Me. I am a place of rest and safety and a constant love indeed.

I do not balk at man’s failings. I do not draw back when anger is released toward Me. I see the ones I love with a heart that is all knowing. Many times the railings of men toward Me come from hearts that are searching, yet unable to see beyond the reasonings they consider to be truth. These reasonings are not grounded in the truth of all that I have said and all that I am. In their reasonings they approach Me, and in their reasonings they draw back. And on and on they go in this manner until they are willing to lay aside their reasonings for that which is truth and the only truth—My Word. And so it goes.

Many in My family have almost no understanding of who they are in Me and who I am. These shaky foundations have caused much quibbling and dissension within our family unit. I stand in the patience of who I am with a heart that longs for men to know Me and abide in the place of communion with Me that I have provided. Doctrinal issues have always been a source of division and will continue to be. Many wars have been fought based on doctrinal divisions of men’s beliefs, but there is only one Way and one Truth, and this has been provided in My Son.

My heart yearns for men to know Me. I am the everlasting Love—My love is everlasting. And this love is the basis of all that I have done and all that I do. This place of rest in Me is eternal and is unmerited. Many are those who fear My wrath based on men’s traditions, men’s doctrines, and the enemy's accusations. They walk in fear that is not a godly fear but an unfounded fear.

I am the everlasting Love. I am the Love that lasts forever. I am the Love that never fails. I am the Love that keeps My Word. I am the Love that fails not, and I am the Love who never changes. My ways are stable and My ways are pure. I am a Love who is like no other love, and this Love is eternal.

This Love has provided a door into all that I have done. This door is My Son. This door is entered in by a choice and not based on any other thing. All who desire to come through this door may come. None who desire entrance into this family of love are denied—none. Much of mankind does not know of this door and all that is gained by entrance into the door of My Son's own life, which He gave so that all might know Me.

I am the everlasting Love. I am the everlasting Healer. I am the everlasting Joy. I am the everlasting Peace. I am the everlasting Wisdom, I am the everlasting Strength. I am the Everlasting God, and all is provided for by Me, and all is provided for free. My love has no end. My healing has no end. My strength has no end. My joy has no end. My wisdom has no end. My peace has no end. My love has no end, no limits, no restrictions.

All that I am and all that I have done for My creation is free to all who will receive. I am the everlasting, eternal Love. It is this Love that yearns for additions to the family. It is this Love that yearns for all to come and partake of all that has been done and to partake freely. There is no way into the benefits found in Me other than "free." All that was required has been paid in full through the blood sacrifice of My Son, and now all may come to receive. This is the nature of the One who is Love: Come, freely receive.
