Expect

EXPECT My anointing to reside in you. Expect it to manifest in truth. This inheritance in Me affords all you'll ever need—it is My glory that this world will see.

My nature resides within each and every one of you in that spirit of “Christ in me.” Within this nature, where all My glory resides, is the glorious anointing indeed. By My Spirit's holy power, this anointing is released for all My Kingdom's needs on this earth. “Your Kingdom come, Your will be done” is all by My anointing and My grace.

Those who know My truth know that My truth alone is My will, and the reason for My Body remaining on this earth is to bring the Father's will into the earth.

I only lived to do My Father's will. I only spoke that which was of My Father. I only lived to bring the revelation of Father and His will, His purposes, His heart, His nature into this earth that all might be one, even as we are one today. This is the finishing work of My Body—to do the will of the Father in cooperation with the Spirit sent of the Father, who is the Spirit of grace and truth.

Expect the glory of your nature to be the glory of My nature, for we are one. Expect the work of the Father's hands by His Spirit to be evident in your life, manifested as it was in Mine, for we are one. You are My Body. We are not separate. We are one.

The anointing is as much a part of your nature as it is of Mine, for the nature you have within you is of Me. Your life is hidden in who you are in Me. All that I am in the image of My Father has been given to you. It is your inheritance—Christ in you, the hope of glory.

The intensity of the anointing is about to increase across My Body in those who have run with Me. It is that anointing you call the “Believer's Anointing” that has been bursting forth at the seams of unbelief into the land of “Who I Am as a Son.”

Joy! Joy is the only description understood by man at the atmosphere in Heaven this day. The manifestation of the Sons has begun. Get ready for what is to come.
