

Prophecies Received at The Family Prayer Center

PT091112 – Nov 12, 2009
Continue In the Press

I am inviting people into My Presence in new ways. Some who are hearing the invitation to come have not experienced My Presence to any degree, but the way has been paved through prayer, and the invitation they are receiving is accompanied by much grace.

Because there have been those who have pushed their way into My Presence through diligence and tenacity by My grace, I am able to come by their authority to offer this grace to access My Presence to many who have been unable to do so before. Walls have come down and strongholds have been breached, and no more are they isolated from Me and the grace that is in My Presence.

A door has been opened, and a place has been gained by those who have pressed in and gone before them. This grace is now extended, and those who have been only able to “peek” into the goodness of My Presence and My healing embrace will begin to enter in.

The heart of the Father is always “Come,” yet the enemy has used many weaknesses and scars to effectively keep these children at a distance, but no more. Those who are hearing the invitation to come will see before them a new door, and this door to My Presence is held open.

The enemy uses the scars of wrong perceptions to keep My children at a distance from Me, and many have not known of My embrace, but this kind of love is available to all. I want the pleasure of holding each child very near. It is a consummate pleasure to pour My healing love on the wounds and the scars that the enemy uses to bring his destruction and push My children away from the depths of My love.

In the embrace of My Presence, there is healing, and many are about to enter into places in My love that will bring wave after wave of My peace and My healing. And this must be on this path of the fullness that is in Me, for healing is part of the riches of the inheritance that is in Me.

When the push forward is a press, know that often the forward progress is a door for others to gain entrance into things their hearts have cried for but have not yet attained. Continue in the press, for the authority that is gained reaches beyond your borders to many. Much of the victory that lies ahead is being entered into. Stay on course in the press.
