Keep Your Eyes Narrowly Focused

Beware of the spirit of religion that demands “holiness” on the outside and not on the inside. Beware of those rules and regulations that come in causing men to conform to each other’s ways rather than My ways.

My work is an inside work, and its fruit will follow the flower of beauty, which is My work of Truth on the inside. As men are conformed to My Truth, the natural will follow, for the natural always follows the spiritual. Just as a seed, so is My Word—first the inside work that is hidden, then the outside work that is revealed.

The spirit of religion is going to have a great emphasis on the “outside” appearance without promoting the work of My Word on the inside. My work is an inside work that manifests in fruit “hanging” on the outside for all to see. And abundant is the fruit for the picking, just as in a healthy, fruit-laden tree. The spirit of religion does “nice” things and demands to be seen, while the spirit of true holiness is intent on the pleasure that comes from Me.

Beware of the leaven of men whose substance is from the works they demand from others. These “leaveners” demand the outward works for their sake and neglect the inward work that comes from My hand. They teach the false doctrines of sacrifice by others—for their sake. But My hand moves according to the heart of men, according to My Word, for My pleasure and blessings are already with those who have accepted salvation according to My plan.

Religion works and works so that I might bestow My blessing, and it denies the abundance of grace that comes from Love’s hand. I am rich in blessings. I am rich in abundance, and endless mountains of grace are always available by My hand.

The leaveners are coming to add to the lump of leaven that is in place and many shall eat of this bread. But My Word is the true Bread, and that which is pure and undefiled is coming from those who walk with Me closely. In this I am pleased.

There shall arise confrontation affecting young and old alike as the leaveners appear as those who are “holy.” I am opening doors for the pure Bread to be preached, and I am opening doors to supersede the mammon of those whose bread is not of Me.

My Spirit inoculates against deception by caring for the seed that is planted within and is of Me. As I said in My Word, through My Spirit’s help you can build yourself up in the ability to believe and perceive that which is truth and of Me. This message, which has matured in the hearts of many by the work of My Spirit, is about to see a greater release to hearts hungering for the pure Word that is unleavened and sets the sons free.

Make no room for the unclean. Settle all factions with truth and leave the rest to Me. You must keep your eyes on Me and the path that is pure and clean. Factions will try to come, but you must keep your eyes on Me and the course I have laid before you of fellowship in Me. Leave room for nothing else but staying on course with Me.

I have specific assignments and targets for you to hit that will demolish camps of the enemy, but this will only be done by staying on this narrow path into more of Me. Keep your eyes narrowly focused on more of Me.

Stay the course for more of Me, for great jubilation will soon be seen. Stay the course into more of Me.
