The Hour of My Stewards and Kings

Have I called you a king, and have I called you a steward? My stewards will reign as My kings, and My stewards bow only at My feet. The Steward of Heaven's ways came to bring the will of the Father to the heart of the inner man. Those who would be My kings bow to no man, for the way of man is not the way of My kings. The earth is full of the ways of man, but My stewards will rule in the way of My King, in His authority.

A steward is a steward in the dominion of a king. My stewards will walk among men and bow only to Me. My stewards will walk among men and rule in their stewardship in My authority. Their charge is rulership. Their charge is dominion. Their charge is all that is in Me.

The stewards are entering into the ways of the King. The stewards are entering into My authority. I will have no other stewards except My kings, for they must control their domain in My authority. Unless you know My authority, you cannot walk as stewards for this hour in Me. My stewards are only those who walk as My kings. There will be much for you to rule and many things for which you must use your authority. Your domain will not be unchallenged. Your domain, at times, will not be easy. But all victory is in Me.

That which you are entering into—the ways of the King—is by My Spirit's hand and My Spirit's training. Secrets are being unveiled this hour that My kings have needed. You are not late, however, your hour is almost upon you, so there must be no delay in entering into more of Me and more of you in Me, for you are entering into the ways of the King. There is a holiness in this unveiling that has been necessary, for My stewards are pure, as are My kings. The underhandedness in the camp of prosperity will be seen. The holiness of those I have called and have been able to release into My anointing will be seen and must be seen.

True stewards and true kings are being released into My anointing and this next step is key. Keep your heart strong toward Me, and in you, I will be seen. There is only one anointing for My stewards and kings in this hour, and this anointing is cloaked in all that is holy. That which is not holy and that which has been feigned, as if it is of Me, will be seen by those who have eyes to see.

There will be an uproar, for there will be some who have exalted themselves as My kings who have sidestepped that which is holy, that which is in Me. I will take some in this hour and expose and dethrone so that they might have the choice to turn to the holy which is in Me. Some who have sidestepped the holy will be given the choice to walk in the way that pleases Me and there will be grace to choose this in the secret place with Me. Others will not see this grace, for they have already moved past it and feigned an appearance before men as My king. For most, there is still opportunity to turn once again to that which is in Me, and that would be truth that is pure and holy.

Pray for your brethren to see the light that is in Me, for this is part of the pure and the holy. I will judge those who have refused all grace that is in Me. Your place is to keep your eyes on Me and to pray that those who have exalted themselves will choose to turn once again to the holy that is in Me. It is the hour of My stewards and kings; it is the hour of that which is holy and is pure in Me.
