When You Come to Know Me in Truth

For that hunger the new nature has given, did you know that hunger is activated by your nature wanting to know Me? For many reach out for Me, desiring to have more and more of Me. Even as they reach out, many times the devil will come.

For when you come to know Me in truth—that fullness of who I am—then what I am is what you become when you walk in My Spirit and in My power as My son and My daughter.
