

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

PT100110A – Jan 10, 2010
Seek Me As Your First Love

Editor's Note: The following refers to the teaching "When Trouble Comes" by Gary Carpenter – January 10, 2010, 8:30 am Sunday service at The Family Prayer Center.

The things that are being said this morning are not for the purpose of alarming anyone. It is solely for the purpose of allowing each one an opportunity to make adjustments where adjustments are needed.

I am your sole need. I am your sole purpose, and when I say there is no need to fear because I am with you, and when I say there is no lack to those who love Me and seek Me, I speak truth, for I am truth and only truth.

So, yes, there is trouble coming, and yes, the enemy is intent on a heavy level of increased warfare against you, and his intent is to torment, when torment is received. As you heed these instructions you hear this day and obey and seek Me as your priority, the tormenter will have no way to torment you, for I am your peace.

Everything the enemy wants to bring against you is as a drop in the ocean in My scheme of things for those who take the time to seek Me as their first love and true love.

So let your heart take heed to what I say to you—and obey. Obey that which you hear My serving son say today and seek Me as your first love, as your necessary love, as your one ardent passion and desire. Make time to fall deeper in love with Me and you will be changed, and storms always cease.