

Prophecies Received at The Family Prayer Center Tulsa, Oklahoma

PT100114 – Jan 14, 2010
How Can You Use Me, Lord?

My children have heard of My wondrous plans, but many still say, “How can You use me, Lord?” They continue to walk under the shadow of circumstances, not knowing the fullness of their salvation. But I say to you, lift up your eyes and see where your help comes from. Awake from this slumber, for you are Mine, and I will keep you in truth. You are in this world, but you are not of this world. Hear Me when I say, REJOICE in the joy of your salvation, for you are not of this world! When I reveal My plans, say, “Oh, yes, Father. And what do You want me to do now?”

I say again, REJOICE in the joy of your salvation, for you are not of this world. REJOICE in the joy of your salvation because your names are written in Heaven. And I do not write the names of My children in 6-point font [small type]; I write them with the very stars of Heaven. So, REJOICE, and be exceedingly glad, for if you are not of this world, you are of My Kingdom.

Now hear everything through this truth, and let all your words be established in this truth. There is not an enemy who can stand in the face of My words spoken in faith by one of My children who knows who he is in Me.