

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

PT100307B – Mar 7, 2010

I Can Pick You Up—Into a Place of My Grace

For it's My desire that when you cannot make this journey on your own, then in My anointing I can pick you up from where you are standing, up into a place of My grace that you might be able to stand.

For My grace is sufficient, for it's My desire to do those things for you, for this pleases Me as much as it does you, when I am able to establish My truth in you.

So when you come together like this and you worship and you give yourself over to Me, sometimes you come close to places you are not walking yet. When you get close enough, then it is My pleasure to snatch you up into that grace and manifest that thing that you are believing for.