

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

PT100314C – Mar 14, 2010
You Are Giving Me What I Need to Move

For many things have to be understood of Me, such as your righteousness and where you are walking and who and what you are in Me. For sometimes I have trouble moving because of the way you see yourself, instead of the way I see you. But many of these things are going to change too—you will see—for many of you are refusing to turn loose, and you are giving Me what I need to move.