Get Ready to Launch

I have been preparing vessels to launch out into more of Me. My vessels have been anchored in the harbor of My Spirit's fellowship and supply, being filled with more and more of Me and more and more of the truth of who I am. In this harbor of My Spirit, there has been a filling up, an equipping that has been taking place so that My vessels can be filled and made ready to move out into the deeper places in My love.

I am the Father. I am Love. Much has been gained in the knowledge of these things, but now—now—My vessels are being released into the understanding of My love, My grace and My Fatherhood. I have waited long; I have waited patiently for men to come to this place in Me of more and more and more of My love. It is the time of moving forth into the deep seas of who I am and who you are in Me. I am releasing vessels into the seas of the knowledge of Me. I am Father and I am Love, and your ships are being launched into deeper understanding and fellowship in My Fatherhood.

This will be an hour of worship in this launching out into Me. It will be a time which many will speak of as a “new day of worship.” It is new to you, but it is not new to Me. This is a worship and fellowship I have long waited for, when My sons would once again reach into the deep places in the Fatherhood that is in Me. Men have seen My Fatherhood, men have enjoyed My Fatherhood, but now is the hour of launching forth into more and more and more of this love. Get ready to launch forth into the deep places of My love. It is the hour of My love—My Fatherhood is My love.

Don't worry about the battles. Don't worry about the storms. Rest in the place of My love. All that is needed is found in My love. All that is needed is provided by My love. Love has freely provided all things. Full provision of all you need is the heart of Love. Nothing can stand against the truth of My love. Love is who I am and I freely have provided all things. This is Fatherhood. This is Love.

My Spirit has been raising the anchors and preparing My vessels to launch out into the deep places of My love. Get ready to launch, for I am taking you into the deep places of My Fatherhood and My love.
