Happy, Full of Joy and Full of God in Persecution

Editor's Note: The following was an interpretation of tongues.

She [the woman speaking in tongues] is speaking about what most prayer is about. It is about desiring to see—it's on His part too, and our part—desiring to see what is in store for us and what He is working us towards. Even though persecution will be part of the future agenda, there will never be a time that you will not have been so happy, so full of joy and full of God. The future is nothing to be afraid of, when He is in it.
