My Desire Is to Give You a Glimpse

His desire is much like the one that He had in Paul's heart to give the Corinthians meat. His desire, He says, My desire, if you could only see now, I could give you a glimpse of what is to come.

And that wasn't a bad thing. It meant it was a great thing, and so His desire is to go ahead and give us the glimpse when right now we shouldn't be getting it. That's the best I can explain the interpretation of it. In other words, there is something He is pleased about.
