

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

Purged of Deep-Seated Things

Editor's Note: This prophecy is included in connection to the one preceding, "Putting Away Childish Things."

In many ways, I take many shapes and many forms. But there will be a compassion poured out before He returns that will carry the life of all you have ever known the Word could be—all the signs and wonders and the miracles It promises—it will give "neon lighting" to "and nothing shall be impossible to you."

For wouldn't you know that it is those deep-seated things that are linked together with emotion, those strongholds, those things that have the power to lay under the surface until triggered by circumstances and events and cases generated by your enemy. But know you not that many of the things that will happen and many things that will come to pass will be because those things will begin to be purged on a level and a power not previously—in your generations—known possible?
