

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

PT110522 – May 22, 2011
There Are Exciting Things Ahead

Editor's Note: The following was during a time of surrender.

For many of you, the depth I am reaching with you is I am healing [you]. I am healing—the kind of healing [for things] that come from hurts and disappointments and lies and people—those kinds [of things], I am healing. And some I am edifying, for you are surrendering to Me in a place that you have not surrendered to Me before. For there are exciting things ahead, and as you can see, the world isn't waiting for you. These things that lie ahead, you will soon be coming into them.

So be strong, you will look back on these days and rejoice that I was able to do the work in you that I have done, says the Lord.