

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

With His Stripes, We Were Healed

Editor's Note: The following was spoken before an invitation to receive prayer.

He said in a previous [prayer] line that He acknowledged broken hearts, and He moved accordingly and was willing to move on behalf of someone who hurt that bad. And He said that to say this: There are two or three people here whom the devil has made it a point to work on you with the condemnation, the “no-good-ness,” and the hopelessness that he brings in an atmosphere with him.

I can't even begin to tell you how willing—do you think God would let something like that go? He is more willing to fellowship with you in a situation like that and give you joy and bring you out of it than He is leaving you in it.

He was wounded for our transgressions, bruised for our iniquities, the chastisement for our lack of peace was laid upon Him, and with His stripes, we were healed.
