This Language of Power

As I said, this language of power is such a benefit and an aid to Me, for many preach so many things that are mixed with untruths that the water becomes muddied and faith is destroyed. And as they travel down their own paths, they take part of what I said here and part of what I said there and they try to make truth, when the whole time I have given you the Teacher, who is commissioned to guide you into all truth.

And why would I do that and not create a path to the Cross that is as sovereign and finished as the Cross itself? And when you get on that path, that is where you will go on purpose, just because you set yourself to go there. Meaning: It is a direct path to everything He is and everything He has for you. It is a direct path, and getting on it is just as on purpose as you getting up in the morning.
