I Am Uprooting Some Long-Standing Things

You say you want to be free—know that mortification by My Spirit is the way into these things, and rest assured and be encouraged—I am in the midst of uprooting things.

Many have tried and many have failed in their attempts to be free. The mortification that comes through fellowship with My Spirit is the necessary thing. Your paths have brought you to this place where I am uprooting some long-standing things.

Know this: This mortification will affect more than one thing, for the roots that are being pulled up are feeding more than one thing. So as you walk into more freedom, you will note that My workmanship has indeed affected more than one thing.

Repeated attempts and repeated failures are seeing their end as I uproot things, and Fathering you is what I am doing in this uprooting. Run forward into Me by My Spirit into this uprooting, for comfort by My Spirit is what I bring and a much deeper strength you will know in Me.

On this path of mortification that fellowship with My Spirit brings, there is great encouragement that I will give you in the midst of what I am doing. And the greater part this uprooting brings is a much deeper understanding and experience of My Fathering, for Fathering you is what I am doing as I uproot things. It is mortification by My Spirit that gives Me a way into your lives to do all of these things.

A life full of My love is a life that is free—a life not fearful or worried but confident and at rest in Me. This pathway into the fullness of love and the freedom it brings is through the fellowship that My Spirit brings, for in this fellowship, He is also mortifying things. As everything about you becomes all about your life in Me, you will know the joys of being absolutely free.

Know with a certainty the joy this gives Me to be able to say these things, for many are at the threshold of much, much more of Me, for I am truly uprooting things.
