I Love You and I Want the Best for You

Praying in tongues—it works on all levels—for I work for the good of those who love Me and are called according to My purpose. But I am interested in all statuses of your life and where you are walking and your desires and what's in your heart. I not only work My plan in your life, but I also work those things you love the most that I can give to you in your life.

So be strong and rejoice. Now rejoice in that statement, that it is not just the things of necessity connected with ministry, but I love you and I love your temporal things of happiness that have to do with this lifetime and things in it and family.

You think I will not do those things that make you happy and [make you] love Me more? I am your Father, says the Lord. So don't limit yourself to your own evaluation of, "Oh, that's God. That's holy. I can pray for that." I love you, and I want the best for you. So when you pray in My Spirit and My plan and within My will, you'd be surprised how many good things I have for you that many of you are not receiving because you are thinking, "Oh, what right would I have to be there?"
