

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

PT120812C – Aug 12, 2012

Hold Your Ground

Don't get weak in your stand that you have made for Me. When you see things get bad, rejoice louder, because when the enemy is trying to stop you where he has to become circumstantial [in his attack], that means that he is beginning to lose. But you make yourself stronger and hold your ground. Hold your ground. You will see—you will see that you are the one who will always end up with the victory.