

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

Be Glad in Your Patience

I gave you the word “endurance,” and then from time to time, I would announce that the time was getting closer and closer to the outpouring that you have heard Me speak of many times through interpretation [of tongues]. But rejoice, be exceedingly glad in your patience, for you will see much, you will see much, for much of this will be in your time. So be strong and rejoice now for the harvest, because it is being worked now.
