

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

PT120826A – Aug 26, 2012

You Really Are Able

Most of this generation has not experienced a real flow of My Spirit, the kind that grounds you very, very solid in Me and you can see things clearly. You can see things clearly, you can see things clearly because when the flesh is put into its place of mortification, you will see that you really are able to walk above that in your faith and in what I have called you to do.