The Measure of Faith to Fulfill Your Calling

Who was it but Me who gave each of you the measure of faith that you operated in to fulfill your calling and your place in My Body? And not all have the same calling, but all who receive the measure I give them and minister in it to their fullness will have the same reward as the next person who seemed to be in the “highlight,” getting all the glory for it.

Well it isn't the glory he is receiving—it is the glory that I gave you and your obedience to what I had you do, says the Lord.
