All the Things That I Did, I Can Do Again

Why wouldn't more be known? Why wouldn't more be understood? All the things that I did, that I promised, I can do again, says the Lord. So brace yourself and be strong. What do you think a revival is made out of? What do you think causes a city to hang on the edge of excitement?

Come with Me and you will find out. But be brave and be strong, for it will not be without persecution.
