

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

PT121216C – Dec 16, 2012

Continue on Your Path

Many, many wonderful things will be seen, for caps [limits] have been put on some of the greatest miracles and moving that are in My desire to give. But you continue on your path, for did I not say that He would guide you into all truth? Therefore, stand fast and know that truly the works that I do, you shall do also, and even that greater work [so] that you go on to get many, many, many born again.

But when I am free to move the way I moved in those times, then it will cause quite a stir in not only your city, but [also] in the cities surrounding. So be of good cheer.
