

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

PT121223A – Dec 23, 2012
Worship Like It Is Already Done

Peace resounded through my spirit for a minute. I don't think I've ever quite had a resounding like that of how it is, can be, and should be.

When times get worse and your faith is tried, remember this, that My peace, My power and My standing that I have given you is enough. But you will see, you will see the things that I can do and you will see the things the devil will try to stop. But you have already won. So rejoice and such and be exceedingly glad and worship like you are rejoicing—something that needs to be done like it has already been done.