The Defeat of Greed

True to much that has been spoken here, He said to add to that: There is much, much that I desire to do, and there is much that I desire to give. For you'll see, when those days of fruitfulness and harvest begin, you will compare the times you went through with what you see, and you will say it was nothing. You will also say, "If I had known that You made available as much as You did, I would have gone on to receive it."

Well, hear what the Spirit would say, for these steps that are being taken into My love will unlock some of these things that your hearts desire to know, and one of them is the defeat of greed.
