

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

PT120205B – Feb 5, 2012
There Is Much I Desire to Say

I am saying and teaching these things, for there is much, much that I desire to say, and I never get the opportunity to say them in most order [in the services] of churches. I hardly ever get to speak My mind.

Yes, truths are taught, but I never usually get to speak My mind and My plan amongst you for not only the hour but for what's to come. For it is My desire to be free to manifest what is in My heart and in My mind for you for the very moment that you live in.
