

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

You Will Know That Provision Has Been Made

Know this: The things that I have said, I have said them because they have been called into being. So hear what I would say, for the Earth, the cultures, the civilizations are going to go through a time and there will be horrible famine and lack here and lack there, but know this: In this place that I am bringing you to [is] where you will know that provision has been made; therefore, you will walk in the revival places where people are making decisions to come to Me by the thousands.

Famine and lack will not bother you because this next realm which [en]compasses more and more of My love never fails nor does it have any fear. So be bold. Hold onto your path even though it seems to get narrower and narrower. Hold on, because great things are ahead of you who stay with Me, says the Lord.

You will be rejoicing over not the lack but the ability to feed people and get them healed.
