Love the Path to My Sayings

I don't like that kind of life that you are speaking of, where "This whole thing is just religion and religion and nothing on the outside, nothing to balance me with." I don't like the idea of that—"You know it has its place in my life, and so, you know, just give me so much, and I will include that, and I will. . ."—and then suddenly He said, As you make this journey, you will see what I have for you in this place to where I am not limited in how I move for My people and for those who are sold out to Me. You will see, the peace and the standing and the fellowship you have with Me in that place on a day-by-day basis is greater than any persecution that can come on this planet or anything that can happen on the negative [side], or anything that can happen to destroy what you are doing.

Do you understand that it is greater? For you love My sayings—"And nothing shall be impossible to you," and "All things are possible to him that believeth." You love My sayings—"You could say to the mountain, doubt not in your heart, be removed and cast into the sea and it should obey you." You love My sayings. Well, love the path to My sayings and you will see what I can do, says the Lord.
