When I Come With My Love

Included in the anointing that is connected with that love which is coming to pass and being given now, the enemy will not be able to hold the captives whom are held with some kind of disease, no, not in My Presence. When I come with My love, you will see, that's on My board [agenda] too. As soon as I can do this, this will take place, and you will walk away [with them free from disease].
