Time Taken to Build the Right Foundations

Be encouraged and be strong. There will be a day that you will rejoice and be glad and you will understand and rejoice for the time that it took to build the right foundations.

Hear this: The foundation that is forming because of media is not only going to be strong here, for not only will you be used here, but you will be used in other places.

I just saw that vision from fifteen years ago or twenty: I saw a veil around the earth. There was a bright area and then a veil and then a real bright area, and people were fighting their way up and they got into that veil. And I said, "That's the principalities and power of the air, isn't it?" And He said, "No." He answered that right away. He said, "That's the flesh."

And then I noticed somebody would get their hand up and it would glow like the atmosphere that was beyond [the veil], and they would come back and they would lay a hand on people and they would get healed. And some of them, [their] minds would go through, and oh, they could teach [well]. And some of them would get both hands or their brain through, and also all the helps and governmental, organizational—some of them starting, breaking all the way through, and when they did, they shot like a spark into a dark region and then kindled a raging fire.

Have we seen that yet? No. Is it still ahead of us? Yes. But the paths are getting wide—media. Narrow is the path that leads to [life]. Wide is the path that leads to destruction. Many go thereon.
