Remember: I Remain the Same

Editor's Note: The following was spoken after an exhortation concerning the importance of endurance and revival and the love of God.

He said that to say this, that not only will the love of God spread powerfully and many, many people will be saved and many, many healed, in fact, it's almost unimaginable. Because I get a "flash vision" again of the people in the fields and stuff, because something has happened and they have come. They have come because of the news and stuff that had been spreading.

There are attacks coming from the enemy that weren't necessary before now but are necessary now. For the enemy has studied us through the dispensations and the centuries past for the destruction of us. And there are things he has not brought against you yet that you have yet to experience, but remember: I remain the same, so you are the one who is free.

Already, the enemy, for this century, has started a great move back towards the justification of sin that I am not justifying. But, yet again, darkness always starts with a shadow until the darkest of night takes over again, and then it starts over again.

But know this: My revival of love is going to be turned loose and you will see when the time comes that these things—for the enemy—won't be possible because of the depth of your understanding of My love and the freedom that you walk in.
