Get to Know Your Father—Make No Excuses

We've crossed the line as a church and He will not allow us to go back. The way we operated last year is not good enough for this year. The way you received and I received last year from Him is not acceptable ever again. He is asking you personally to get to know your Father and to make no excuses—that we can make no excuses of why we are not receiving, because everything is in Him already.

You and I can have as much of Him as we want. And what He is after in us is a group of people who walk together, share together, walk through things together, pray for each other, hold each other up, strengthen each other, but we no longer look, [except for] one place, to receive—and that is our Father. He wants us to blaze a trail as children who know their Father so that others will follow and will step right into that same Presence. So we can get out of the way. So man can get out of the way.

I just tell you what I am seeing: It's a revival—thousands and thousands of people coming to experience His Presence without man in the way. And experiencing His Presence is not just an "ooey, gooey" feeling of satisfaction, of safety, of feeling nice. It is power, where they will be healed and the blind eyes will open and the deaf ears will hear and the lame will walk, not with just prayer lines. I'm not saying not with just prayer lines, but just from His Presence.

So receive. Receive from Me. Let Me be your Father. Let Me show you how much I love you. Let Me become Everything to you and never be afraid. Never be afraid of coming boldly into My Presence.
