Praying in Tongues—The Word of God in the Hands of the Holy Spirit

I slipped into the Spirit for a minute and I saw a well. This well, would go here and it would be there—dug down—and then it would go [deeper], and it would be dug down somewhere else. When He started explaining it to me a little bit, what it was doing is landing in a religion and then digging down into it. And I am thinking, “Well, this has to do with what You have been trying to teach me here. What is this?”

Whenever they get filled with the Holy Ghost and start praying with tongues, it starts digging out every false doctrine, every false believing, and it will keep digging down until it gets it all out where God can move in the fullness of them, give them everything they have coming, get their relatives [saved]—do all of it. It doesn't matter what religion and what they are believing—this Well can go deep enough to straighten anybody or anything out because it is the Word of God in the hands of the Holy Spirit.
