

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

PT131215B – Dec 15, 2013
There Is an Order That I Bring

For you who are wondering, and especially for you who are asking yourself about My order: The prophets spoke, they spoke in order—[two or] three taking their turn. In the movements of the Holy Spirit, there is order.

There is order—it is because He brings it. But there is an order that you follow. There is the order that He brings: Which always, always flows by My Spirit and what I am doing. So hear what the Spirit would say: Because there [was] confusion on both sides, where I did not get to move because they stuck to such an agenda or where the movement was so free that much false movement was introduced, because no one was there to judge it.

But hear what I have to say: There is a place where I will operate. It is a place that exalts and lifts you up in the spirit, not in the flesh, and supplies your needs. There is a movement of My Holy Spirit that has been offered to the Church if they are willing to receive it and let Me move. Yet there is an order that I bring, and you stay to the order until I intervene over special things that have been prayed and movements of the Spirit and miracles. But in all of this, you will find order, because My hand is in it.

The order you stick to when I don't move much, and the order you stick to when it is genuinely Me moving, says the Lord—those who are responsible for My moving, those who are called, they [are] supposed to know the difference. Not to shut Me off where I can't move or turning it into wild chaos where nobody gets anything [out] of it. But there is a place—there is a place where the needs are met, where I get to speak the genuine Word, and you will leave edified and satisfied in Me, says the Lord.