The Kind of Praying That Makes the Difference

You cannot pray My mysteries out without them affecting what is happening on both an international and local level. For the more that you pray, don't you know it is your authority, but it is My mind, and you are releasing Me to move in the kind of praying that makes the difference? The edification is about you—that I can build you up above anything, anything—that you can move when I move and talk when I talk.

In these last days, there will be much confusion here and there, and there will be a people looking for an answer, and you have the answer that they are looking for.

So be strong and continue on the path that you are on, for you are scheduled to see some mighty things that you will be delighted over, says the Lord.
