

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

PT130217 – Feb 17, 2013
A War Declared on Darkness

The time is arriving where you will not just look at any situation and hope the best, but the time is coming when you will take that situation on as a personal [situation], and when you take that on personally, you are saying to Me, “No, I know that Jesus bore that, and I am not going to leave it that way.”

There is a place in Me that can be attained to where those who were thrown by the wayside by religion and are holding many things—it was not My will for [those things] to hold them and destroy their life, but these will come out of the teaching that will be manifested along with My glory—manifested by My glory with My glory—when the revival is touched and you turn Me loose for the salvation of many thousands and thousands of people. When you look at that, you will say, “That was a war declared on darkness.” But you have given to Me and it is building up and I have what I need. Everything is getting very close—you have given to Me, I have what I need, and I can give back.

It isn't too far away, what you have been waiting for, so rejoice and be exceedingly glad: You will have—you have your revival.