

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

PT130224 – Feb 24, 2013
You Have Authority Here

Editor's Note: The following was spoken before prayer for the salvation of loved ones.

You are sitting in more power than you know and operate in much less than what has been given to you. Why wouldn't I be there to not only guide you into all truth but to supply what I have in leadership and in the supernatural to bring these things to pass? Because I wouldn't that any should perish.

Most have no idea, most have no idea what changes the power that you loose in Heaven [brings] when you hold a name up before Me and declare him saved. You give Me something I need to go after him.

He said to remind you: Why would He say, "Pray the Lord of the Harvest to send forth laborers"? Why? Why does He want you to pray? Why?

Why doesn't He just send them? He is the One who died for them. What have you got to do with it? What makes the difference when you utter it? Because you have authority here.
