Believe in the Miraculous

I long for the time that the world can see My heart and My love for them. I ache for them to see My love. Please continue to follow. Please continue to trust Me.

I long for the moment of My power to flow. I long for that moment. The world will see Me, not just through words but through My power being displayed.

There are many, many mighty signs and wonders coming. I will show you. I will surprise you, for even what you think you know is not close enough to what I know and what I want to do through you and for you.

Believe. Believe in big things. Believe in great things. Believe in the miraculous. That's where I live. That's normal to Me, and it will be normal to you.
