Stand Fast and Continue in Fellowship With Me

The anointing that destroys the yoke is on the inside of you and as you fellowship with Me, I release that anointing and I destroy the yokes that have held you back. And there is more and more being destroyed all the time, and more and more of My life coming forward and replacing what was [a yoke] to now [with] what is [your freedom]—Me and only Me. For I am the King of Glory and I will not allow any man to receive the glory that belongs to Me, so I am bringing you into a place where you will begin to see more and more, more and more of who I am. I am your Father. Yes. I am your King. Yes, but I am the One who created you. I am the God of all creation. There is nothing that I won't do.

So stand fast in the things that I have been teaching you. Hold fast to what I have called you. You are My sons and daughters. You are My children. You are My inheritors, says the Lord, for I have called you to be those who would inherit and bring forth My Kingdom with great power and great light. And the results will astound those who would scoff and who are in darkness even this day, for they have decided to turn their head and go another way.

But this I say: Stand firm in this truth that I have led you into that all things are possible and there is a gift inside of you. That gift will unwrap and that gift will come forth. It will shine light and darkness will flee. And many will come running into Me, for they will see the life like never before, and the truth shall set men free.

So stand fast and allow yourself to continue in that fellowship with Me, for My heart longs for you—to hear your voice, to hear you call My Name. I love you and I love to hear you worship Me. I love to hear you take My Word and speak it back to Me. I love to hear you stand strong and tall without shame, for you are My ambassadors. You are My sons, My daughters, but you are also My warriors, says the Lord.

And, for some, the war has been greater than it had been before. It seems stronger, yet you seem to know you have victory—a strange sense on the inside—so you continue to stand firm. And in this, I am well pleased, says the Lord.
